GERMANY MAKES CONCESSIONS AND CONDITIONS

DIVER CONDUCT IS TO HINGE ON BRITISH ACTS

FOUR MORE REBELS ARE SHOT FOR TREASON

Fifteen Escape Extreme Penalty, But Will Be Ten Years in Prison for Part in Outbreak

DISARMAMENT OF IRELAND PURPOSED

Bishop of Dublin Shows Conditions Serious by Recommending That Martial Law Continue

DUBLIN, May 5.—Four more rebel prisoners were sentenced to death by court-martial and shot this morning. This was announced officially. The men are Joseph Plunkett, Edward Daly, Michael O'Hanrahan and William Pearse. The following official communication was issued:

"Four prisoners, Joseph Plunkett, Edward Daly, Michael O'Hanrahan and William Pearse, were sentenced to death and shot this morning after the sentence had been confirmed by the general commanding in chief."

"Fifteen others sentenced to death were commuted to ten years' penal servitude. They were Thomas Bolton, Thomas Walsh, Finian Lynch, Michael Mervyn, Dennis O'Callaghan, P. E. Sweeney, Patrick McNeisty, Peter Canny, William Tobin, George Irvine, John Doherty, J. J. Walsh, James McLinn, J. J. Reid and John Williams."

"Another prisoner, John McGarry, was commuted from death to eight years. Two others, Francis Fahey and Richard Davys, were sentenced to ten years."

Joseph Plunkett was one of the seven leading members of the proclamation of the Irish provisional government. Plunkett was a member of the Catholic branch of the famous Irish family of that name.

William Pearse was a brother of Patrick Pearse. He was a sculptor and once was a tutor in the Irish boys' school, of which his brother was head master.

Edward Daly and Michael O'Hanrahan have not played prominent roles in the revolutionary movement.

Stock Exchange Reflects Crisis

Market Demoralized by German Situation

NEW YORK, May 5.—Wall street's grave view of the German note was reflected in the demoralized tone of the stock market at the opening today, active issues, particularly those comprising the war group, breaking three to six points, with 19 for Bethlehem Steel.

The tenor of the German reply was generally known before the market opened, the news tickers and other agencies published many of its essential features. There was a large attendance of members on the floor.

Commission houses received countless queries by telephone and telegraph from out of town points.

Brokers had numerous selling orders and the course of the market at the opening denoted little support.

The more specific declines included: Crude Oil, 6 points; Lackawanna Steel, 4; Studebaker, 4 1/2; Anaconda, 3 1/2; Industrial Alcohol, 3 1/2; U. S. Smelting, 6 1/2; and numerous 1 to 2 points declines elsewhere.

United States Steel opened with 4000 shares at 50 1/2, 18 1/2 against yesterday's close of 52 1/2, and Marine preferred's initial sale comprised a block of 3800 shares at 52 to 50, a maximum decline of six points.

Rails were relatively steady.

Recoveries were made before 11 o'clock, by which time excitement had died down and trading was almost normal. In fact, leading stocks like United States Steel and Union Pacific were then only more fractions under yesterday's close, while Reading was actually above that quotation.

Other strong features included American Smelting, United Fruit, American Can, Standard Copper and United States Rubber.

Later excerpts of the German note were regarded as more conciliatory than the early messages.

POLICE EXPOSE IS FORESTALLED BY RESIGNATION?

Woods and Jackson Will Not Discuss Rumor at City Hall.

That the resignation of Chief of Police W. F. Woods has forestalled an exposure of conditions in the police department was the rumormongers' claim today. Woods positively declined to make a statement, stating that he would talk to Commissioner Jackson would give him permission.

When Commissioner Jackson was asked to unseat Woods' lips with a request that he explain his action, he stated that Woods was his own master and that he could talk or not, as he pleased.

"The resignation says I can explain it if I wish, but I do not know whether he would approve of my explanation if I made it," said Woods.

ASKS RESTORATION.

Woods today announced that he will immediately petition the civil service board to cancel his leave of absence as lieutenant, granted for one year, and restore him to that position. He also announced that he will take the examination for captain of police when it is called by the civil service board.

Commissioner Jackson, cognizant of affairs at the City Hall, today told a civil service board and Commissioner Jackson that the police department was becoming badly disorganized, that departmental policies were being destroyed, and that conditions were coming to a place where an open scandal might be anticipated at any time.

The civil service board, it is declared, had informally discussed the situation behind closed doors.

The civil service board had the power to control the situation had it felt that such a course was warranted. The board could at any time have summarily canceled Woods' leave of absence and he would then be in the position of being out of the department entirely, should be lose his position or chief of police. It has long been an open secret among members of the civil service council that his tenure of office was precarious.

WONT TALK.

Commissioner Jackson refused to discuss the situation today other than to remark that he had not as yet formally accepted the resignation tendered by Woods. He also indicated that he was not ready to announce whether he will appoint Captain of Inspectors W. J. Petersen as chief. He said that for the time being Petersen would naturally become acting chief under the charter upon Woods resuming his old position of lieutenant.

Concerning the Woods resignation, some mystification exists. He would not say whether he had offered it voluntarily or whether it had been requested by Jackson.

"If I say anything I shall say the truth," said Chief Woods.

The resignation which is in the hands of Dr. Jackson gives the police department a clean bill of health," Woods was reminded. "Did you write

AMERICANS MURDERED BY VILLISTAS

Carranza and Wilson Reach Agreement as to Pursuit

Troops Will Stay and Permission to Use Rail Granted

EL PASO, May 5.—Five Americans were murdered by bandits while working a mining claim between Rosario and Mazatlan in Sinaloa, according to American miners arriving here today. One of the slain men was named Volain. The names of the others are unknown.

EL PASO, May 5.—At General Huerta's temporary headquarters here it was said this afternoon a message had been received from General Pershing in which he stated that he thought he had located Villa.

MEXICO CITY, May 5.—Provisional President Carranza has accepted the United States' proposals "in principle" as outlined by the Scott-Oregon conference, announced Carranza's secretary today. He further stated that they had reached a "satisfactory solution" with regard to the presence of American troops in Chihuahua.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—President Wilson announced last night that the tentative agreement between General Scott and General Oregon, covering the future operations of the American and Mexican military forces in Mexico, provided for a basis of co-operation which promises to prevent misunderstanding and strengthen the cordial relations of the two republics.

Although there was no formal announcement of the action, notification that the agreement is acceptable to the American government was telegraphed to General Scott at El Paso by Secretary Baker. General Scott is authorized to exchange formal acceptance with General Oregon as soon as the latter has obtained the approval of General Carranza, and officials here are confident that it will be today or Saturday.

President Wilson issued this statement:

"I have examined with the secretary of war the report made by General Hugh L. Scott of the conference between him and General Oregon, secretary of war of the republic of Mexico."

"The report includes a tentative agreement regarding the future operations of both the American and Mexican military forces, and evidences cordial co-operation between the two governments in their common purpose."

"As this agreement is being submitted to the de facto government of Mexico it would not be proper for me to permit its publication until that government has had an opportunity to examine and consider its provisions. The full text of the proposed agreement will be given out immediately upon its acceptance by both governments. In general, I may say that it provides a basis of co-operation which promises to prevent misunderstanding and strengthen the cordial relations of the two republics."

Foresee Reign of Terror in Mexico

NAMIQUEPA, Mex., May 5.—News of the contemplated American withdrawal from Mexico mysteriously reached the natives today, causing great uneasiness among Mexicans who have furnished stolen beef supplies to the expedition. A number came to camp and asked whether the reports of a withdrawal were true and whether the Carranzistas or Villistas intended to make reprisals.

It is feared that Americans are also doomed to suffer the wrath of both factions for supplying the expedition with provisions. Friendly natives foresee a reign of terror surpassing that of the last five years.

Allies Make Air Raid on Italian Front

BERLIN, May 5.—The statement from the Austrian war office, dated May 4, received here today, says regarding the Italian front:

"In the night an airship of the enemy crossed our lines at the mouth of the Wipbach, dropped bombs and continued its raid northward in the Idria valley to Laibach and Salt Lach. On its return our artillery and infantry attacked the airship, which took fire. Eventually the airship fell to the earth near the Gorka drill grounds. Its four inmates were dead. Austrian-Hungarian aviators dropped a number of bombs in Italian barracks near Vilese, and after violent fighting in the air returned unharmed."

Zep Raids Saloniki; Is Brought Down

LONDON, May 5.—A Zeppelin raided Saloniki during the early hours this morning, according to a Reuters dispatch from that city. The airship was subjected to a heavy fire and is reported to have been destroyed.

ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS ARE NOT COMPLETELY SATISFIED

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Within ten minutes after the final and vital paragraphs of the German reply to the American submarine demands reached Washington, President Wilson and his cabinet met to consider the communication.

It was stated authoritatively late today that if the official text of Germany's note bears out the unofficial copy transmitted in news despatches today, the United States will accept the assurances it contains and await a fulfillment of its promises.

The sudden transition of the reply from a sarcastic, contentious tone, belittling the United States' attitude, to flat statements that met virtually all concessions called for by the government, left the cabinet officers somewhat confused.

The general disposition seemed to be to consider the submarine issue practically closed for the time being.

Germany's complete backdown was made conditional on the success of efforts it urges America to make to force Great Britain to observe fully the principles of international law.

Germany fully concedes President Wilson's contention that in the future no merchantmen, whether freight or passenger liners, shall be sunk without warning, either within or without the war zone around the British Isles unless they resist or attempt to escape. Wilson has already conceded the German right to sink ships under such conditions.

NEW ORDERS TO DIVER MASTERS.

Submarine commanders have already received new orders, meeting fully the demands made. The government expresses implicit confidence that these orders will be executed in good faith.

The unofficial copy was laid before the cabinet. One chief point for consideration seemed to be Germany's reference to the immunity of "merchant vessels recognized by international law."

This was regarded as having possibilities of relating to the dispute over questions of armament and alleged instructions of the British admiralty to merchant captains to attack submarines.

The first impression in official circles was that the full text did not much relieve the unfavorable impression created by the opening portions, although it was admitted that the new instructions to submarine commanders would have to be weighed and considered very carefully before their acceptability to this government could be determined.

Early sections of the note caused a feeling that Germany was beclouding the issue with an avalanche of words, arguments and conditions.

Officials were amazed at Germany's blunt refusal to accept as conclusive evidence submitted by this government in the case of the channel packet Sussex.

"It looks very bad," was the comment of a State Department official after reading a portion of the reply. While Secretary Lansing was given the United Press report, he would not comment, the general attitude of the State Department being that Germany was not even diplomatic.

DOUBTS SOMEWHAT LEAVENED.

A first feeling that it was unsatisfactory was somewhat leavened by the text of the new orders to submarine commanders, although it was foreseen that the reference to immunity for "merchant ships recognized by international law" might admit of some dispute of interpretation.

So much depends upon words and their shades of meaning involved in translation from German to English that no decision can be attempted until the official text is in the President's hands.

Ambassador Gerard cabled today that he had started it on the cables last night. It ought to be in Washington tonight or early tomorrow.

Two views were current in official circles. One was that Germany has declared her intention of abandoning her "present method of submarine warfare" as demanded by the President and that the American government might have to wait to see whether the abandonment will be effected.

The other was that the United States having already attempted to have Great Britain give up its interference with neutral commerce and having told Germany that it cannot discuss with her its negotiations with Great Britain has no course but to break diplomatic relations with Germany.

GENERAL IMPRESSION UNFAVORABLE.

While the general tone of the German note created an unfavorable impression, officials took the position that the language was immaterial if the guarantees were real.

Germany's declaration that she has issued new orders to submarine commanders not to attack without warning "merchant vessels recognized by international law" was considered the chief point. The German view of merchant vessels as defined in its declaration of February 8th of its purpose to sink armed ships without warning and the American view as defined in the armed ship memorandum made public recently differ in several points.

Some officials believed that for this reason the controversy had now come to the point where Germany's future action would determine the course of the United States.

The refusal of the German government openly to admit the attack on the Sussex was considered only incidental to the main issue.

Until President Wilson himself decides whether the German note is acceptable there will be no announcement of the attitude of the government.

"BUCK PASSED," IS ASSERTION.

If Germany later, because the United States fails to bring Great Britain to meet the German contentions, rescinds the order announced today, there will be a new issue for the United States to face. This has no part in the present situation, it was said.

On the other hand some officials believe that Germany has again "passed the buck" to the United States. The very nature of the reply "put this country on probation," making successful settlement of the present difficulty entirely dependent upon America's attitude to Great Britain. So far as the language is concerned officials were inclined to pass over certain caustic irrelevant passages "for home consumption."

Rejection of this country's evidence in the Sussex case, however, is a thorn in the side of optimism. The government had considered the case against Germany on this point complete.

The Lokal Anzeiger said today: "We hope that the sense of justice of the Americans will be satisfied with Germany's friendly advance, made out of the full knowledge of the power, success and justness of our cause. The German standpoint cannot be criticized because it is based on principles of international law and humanity which America has repeatedly maintained."

U. S. ACTION DELIBERATE.

At the State Department after the cabinet meeting it was stated that no "hasty" action would be taken on the German note, and that in view of its length and the necessity of digesting it carefully it was "improbable" that any decision would be reached before next week. The cabinet was in session two hours and a half, the longest meeting held for several months.

Members of the cabinet were uncommunicative, all saying that no further steps would be taken until the official text was placed before President Wilson.

The private view of officials apparently was that the new orders to submarine commanders apparently met the demands of the United States, unless an interpretation were placed on them to lead to attack on merchant vessels armed for defensive purposes. The general tenor of the German note, however, was considered unsatisfactory.

As the cabinet members left the White House several indicated their view that the United States would have to wait and see whether the new orders to submarine commanders were carried out.

OPINION OF CONGRESS DIVIDED.

Congress received the note quietly, with members expressing a variety of views. Senators of the foreign relations committee uniformly refrained from comment. Others thought the reply favorable, some were doubtful of the conditions apparently attached and some others thought it had not advanced the negotiations toward settlement at all. On the surface there were no indications of activity in the group which has opposed the President's policy of pressing his demands.

A high government official, intimately in touch with the situation, said after a careful perusal of the reply: "Germany appears to have made great concessions. I do not see where there is anything at present that would justify a break. Germany has gone much further than earlier reports would have indicated."

Senator Hughes of New Jersey, a caller at the White House, after reading the German note, said he was pleasantly surprised. "We ought to accept," he said.

The opinion of other callers was that the President should accept the offer of Germany as given in good faith. It was pointed out that the President asked Germany to "declare and effect" a change in submarine methods. Germany, it was said, had "declared" the change and it now only remained for the United States to wait and see if it were "effected."

MAKES EVERY CONCESSION, SAYS BERLIN

BERLIN, May 5.—That Germany yielded virtually every demand made in the United States' submarine note was conceded in the German reply made public here. Every possibility of a break is apparently averted. It is considered here that the reply-meets the contention of President Wilson that the pledge to torpedo no ships without warning shall be extended to freighters as well as passenger vessels. The pledge includes not only the war zone around the British Isles, but the area outside.

"SATISFACTORY," IS OPINION OF VON BERNSTORFF

WASHINGTON, May 5.—German Ambassador von Bernstorff, accepting his government's reply to the American submarine demands as satisfactory to the United States, will call at the State Department early next week to take up the matter of "British violations of international law" mentioned in the note.

Negotiations on the part of Von Bernstorff will not take the form of demands. Instead, he will point out that the United States in its note assumed the role of an upholder of international law, no matter where violated. He will call attention to British violations. It is the belief of officials that the ambassador will not find a receptive attitude at the State Department.

GERMANY'S REPLY TO UNITED STATES

Following is the text of the German government's reply to the American government's ultimatum of yesterday. The result of the investigation has yielded, the German Government is entitled to the possibility that the ship mentioned in the note of April 10 as having been torpedoed by a German submarine is actually identical with the Sussex.

The German Government begs to reserve further communication on the matter until certain points are ascertained which are of decisive importance for establishing the facts of the case. Should it turn out that the commander was wrong in assuming the vessel to be a man-of-war, the German Government will not fail to draw the consequences resulting therefrom.

In connection with the case of the Sussex, the Government of the United States made a series of statements, the gist of which is the assertion that the incident is to be considered but one instance of a deliberate method of indiscriminate destruction of vessels of all sorts, nationalities and destinations by German submarine commanders.

The German Government must emphatically repudiate the assertion. The German Government, however, thinks it of little avail to enter into details in the present stage of affairs, more particularly as the Government of the United States omitted to substantiate the assertion by reference to concrete facts.

The German Government will only state that it has imposed far-reaching restraints upon the use of the submarine weapon, solely in consideration of neutral interests, in spite of the fact that these restrictions are necessarily of advantage to Germany's enemies. No such consideration has even been shown neutrals by Great Britain and her allies.

TEXT OF ANSWER TO PRESIDENT WILSON'S NOTE

had, in fact, orders to conduct the submarine warfare in accordance with the general principles of visit and search and the destruction of merchant vessels recognized by international law, the sole exception being the conduct of warfare against enemy trade carried on enemy freight ships encountered in the war zone surrounding Great Britain. With regard to these no assurances have ever been given to the Government of the United States. No such assurances are contained in the declaration of February 3, 1915.

"The German Government cannot admit any doubt that these cruises were given or are executed in good faith. Errors actually occurred. They can in no kind of warfare be avoided altogether. Allowances must be made in the conduct of naval warfare against an enemy according to all kinds of rules, whether permissible or illicit.

"But apart from the possibility of error, naval warfare just like warfare on land, implies unavoidable dangers for neutral persons and goods entering the fighting zone. Even in cases where the naval action is confined to ordinary forms of cruiser warfare, neutral persons and goods repeatedly come to grief.

"DANGERS FROM MINES. "The German Government has repeatedly and explicitly pointed out the dangers from mines that have led to the loss of numerous ships.

"The German Government has made several proposals to the Government of the United States in order to reduce to a minimum for American travelers and goods the inherent dangers of naval warfare. Unfortunately the Government of the United States decided not to accept the proposals. Had it accepted the Government of the United States would have been instrumental in preventing the greater part of the accidents that American citizens have met with in the meantime.

"The German Government still stands by its offer to come to an agreement along these lines.

"As the German Government repeatedly declared, it cannot dispense with the use of the submarine weapon in the conduct of warfare against enemy trade. The German Government, however, has now decided to make a further concession, adapting methods of submarine warfare to the interests of neutrals.

"In reaching this decision the German Government is actuated by considerations of the above the level of the disputed question.

"The German Government attaches no less importance to the sacred principles of humanity than the Government of the United States. It again fully takes into account that both governments for many years co-operated in developing international law in conformity with these principles, the ultimate object of which has been to confine warfare on sea and land to armed forces of belligerents and safeguard as far as possible non-combatants against the horrors of war. But although these considerations are of great weight, they alone would not under present circumstances have determined the attitude of the German Government. For in answer to the appeal by the Government of the United States on behalf of the sacred principles of humanity and international law the German Government must repeat once more, with all emphasis that it was able to put upon the British Government which ignored all accepted rules of international law and attacked this terrible war to the lives and property of non-combatants having no regard whatever for the interests and rights of neutrals, and non-combatants that through this method of warfare have been severely injured.

"In self-defense against the illegal conduct of British warfare, while fighting a bitter struggle for national existence, Germany had to resort to the submarine as an effective weapon of submarine warfare.

"SEES DISCRIMINATION. "As matters stand, the German Government cannot but reiterate its regret that the sentiments of humanity which the Government of the United States extends with such fervor to the victims of submarine warfare were not extended with the same warmth of feeling to the many millions of women and children, who, according to the avowed intention of the British Government, shall be starved and who, by their sufferings, shall form the glorious armies of the Central Powers into indomitable expiation. The German Government, in the many millions of women and children, fails to understand this discrimination all the more as it has repeatedly and explicitly declared itself ready to use the submarine weapon in strict conformity with the rules of international law as recognized before the outbreak of the war if Great Britain likewise would adapt her conduct of warfare to these rules.

"General attempts made by the Government of the United States to prevail upon the British Government to act accordingly failed because of the flat refusal on the part of the British Government. Moreover, Great Britain ever since has again and again violated international law, surpassing all bounds and outraging neutral rights. The latest measures adopted by Great Britain declaring German bunker coal contraband and establishing conditions under which English bunker coal alone can be supplied to neutrals, is nothing but an unheard-of attempt by way of extortion to force neutral tonnage into service and trade in war.

"The German people know that the Government of the United States has the power to confine the war to the armed forces of the belligerent countries in the interest of humanity and the maintenance of international law.

"The Government of the United States would have been certain in attaining this end had it been determined to insist upon Great Britain on the incontrovertible right to the freedom of the seas (evidently meaning 'and it been determined to insist upon Great Britain not interfering with the incontrovertible rights to the freedom of the seas'), but as matters stand the German people are under the impression that the Government of the United States, while demanding that Germany, struggling for existence, shall restrain the use of an effective weapon, and while making compliance with these demands a condition for the maintenance of relations with Germany, confines itself to protest against the illegal methods adopted by Germany's enemies. Moreover, the German people know to what a considerable extent their enemies are supplied with all kinds of war material from the United States.

"APPEAL UNCONVINCING. "It will therefore be understood that the appeal made by the Government of the United States to the sentiment of humanity and the principles of international law cannot, under the circumstances, meet with the same hearty response from the German people which such an appeal otherwise is always certain to find here. If the German Government, nevertheless, has resolved to go to the utmost limit of concession, it has not alone been guided by friendship connecting two great nations, but also by the thought of the great doom which threatens the entire civilized world should the cruel and irregular war be extended and prolonged.

"The German Government, conscious of Germany's strength twice within the last hundred years, and aware of the world's readiness to make peace on a basis safeguarding Germany's vital interests, thus inclines to believe that Germany's fault if peace is still withheld from the nations of Europe. The German Government feels all the more justified to declare that responsibility could not be borne in the forum of history of mankind if, after twenty-one months of the most strenuous and heroic struggle, the German Government and the Government of the United States were to take a turn seriously threatening the maintenance of peace between the two nations.

"As with the German Government, it wishes to prevent things from taking such a course. The German Government, moreover, is prepared to do the utmost to confine the operations of the warfare for the rest of its duration to the fighting forces of the belligerents, and also insuring the freedom of the seas, a principle upon which the German Government believes itself now, as before, to be in agreement with the Government of the United States.

"The German Government, guided by this idea, notifies the Government of the United States that German naval forces have received the following orders: in accordance with the general principles of visit, search and destruction of merchant vessels, such vessels both within and without the area declared to be a naval war zone shall not be sunk without warning, without having been previously warned by ships attempt to escape or offer resistance.

"The neutrals cannot expect that Germany, forced to fight for existence, shall for the sake of neutral interests abandon the use of an effective weapon if the enemy is permitted to continue to apply at will methods of warfare violating the rules of international law. Such a demand is incompatible with the character of neutrality and the German Government is convinced that the Government of the United States does not think of making such a demand, knowing that the Government of the United States repeatedly declares that it is determined to restore the principle of the freedom of the seas from whatever quarters it has been violated.

"Accordingly the German Government is confident that in consequence of new orders issued to the naval forces, the Government of the United States will now accept contentedly the measures which that all impediments are removed, which may have been in the way of mutual cooperation toward the restoration of the freedom of the seas during the war, and it does not doubt that the United States will now accept contentedly the measures which the British Government shall forthwith observe the rules of international law universally recognized before the war as are laid down in the notes previously sent by the Government of the United States to the British Government December 26, 1914, and January 15, 1915.

"Should the steps taken by the Government of the United States not attain the object it desires to have the laws of neutrality strictly observed by the nations—the German Government would then be facing a new situation in which it must reserve to itself complete liberty of decision.

"The undersigned avails himself of this opportunity to renew to the American Ambassador his assurances of highest consideration. (Signed) "JAGOW."

PETERSEN MAY NOT TAKE PLACE

that resignation, or merely sign it?" "I signed it, that is enough," said Woods.

"But did you write it yourself?" "That is a leading question which I refuse to answer," replied the chief of police.

Woods admitted that a number of his friends have been bitterly disappointed by the manner of his resignation. They had counseled that when he resigned he should tender a simple resignation without going into a long statement that the police department is in excellent condition, that gambling and vice have been suppressed and that he has had the unequalled and constant support of Commissioners Jackson and Peterson. They were told early this week of the resignation Woods had actually signed.

FRIENDS ANGRY. "Some of my friends are angry about the course I have taken," said Woods. "I shall be blamed and attacked. But I shall have to stand it. If I do make any explanation, however, it will be the truth.

"I have been so disgusted that the present condition, now the matter is settled, is a genuine relief to me. You must see that Commissioner Jackson gave me this appointment. I owe him all my support. This persistent questioning places me in an embarrassing position."

Woods has been chief of police for ten months. He was appointed by Jackson as a compromise candidate when the next nomination found it difficult to agree upon a successor to Petersen. It was generally agreed that Petersen could not be allowed to remain chief after he had bulked so large as a political issue in the campaign, although it was conceded that he was the best executive in the department. Since that time there has been between fires, and it gradually came to be considered that he had not succeeded in harmonizing the various forces with which he had to contend.

MAY NOT ACCEPT. Petersen is willing to accept the position of chief, even if it is proffered. Many friends of Petersen have advised him to take his time about considering the matter when it is presented.

Petersen will automatically become acting chief under the charter, unless a successor to Woods is appointed when his resignation goes into effect May 15. He is making his plans to go to the annual convention of the National Association of Chiefs of Police, of which he is vice-president. The text of the resignation which Woods signed follows:

heretofore tender my resignation as chief of police of Oakland to take effect May 15, 1916. Twice I have tendered my resignation and each time you have prevailed upon me to withdraw the same. This time I meet inside the same old frame of mind. On retiring as chief of police I leave the department in splendid shape, and after twenty years' experience in the department I can positively state that Oakland has never been freer, calmer, and more orderly in its history than it is now, yet some misinformed citizens are charging you and the department with being derelict in duty.

I desire at this time to assure you of my sincere appreciation of the splendid support you have at all times given me and the department.

Assuring you of my highest personal regard and of my hearty co-operation in your good work for Oakland, I am, respectfully,

W. F. WOODS, Chief of Police.

DIVER ARGUMENT HAS BEEN LONG

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Germany's diplomatic correspondence with the United States on the submarine issue has extended over nearly a year and more than once has brought the two countries to a pass where a break seemed unavoidable. President Wilson has spoken primarily for the inviolable rights of Americans and generally for the rights of neutrals. Germany has been restrained by a powerful public sentiment against curtailing the effectiveness of her best weapon against her enemies and President Wilson has been embarrassed first by dissension in the cabinet and later in Congress by pro-German propaganda conducted throughout the United States.

Submarine warfare did not actually enter the realm of diplomacy until after the destruction of the Lusitania. The accumulation of cases affecting Americans was taken up in the first note to Germany, which was despatched May 15, 1915. It characterized the attacks on the Falaba, Cushing, Guilford, and Lusitania as a "series of events which the United States has observed with growing concern, distress and amazement."

It expressed the hope that submarine commanders engaged in torpedoing peaceful ships without warning were in such practices operating without the sanction of their government. The note closed with these words:

"The imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment."

On May 25, 1915, Germany replied with a note which covered a wide range of argument and was held to be generally unsatisfactory. It alleged that the Lusitania had masked guns aboard, that she in effect was a British auxiliary cruiser, that she carried munitions of war, that her own company, aware of the damages she risked in the submarine war zone, was in reality responsible for the loss of American lives.

BRITAIN RESIGNS. While the American reply to the note was being framed dissension in the cabinet resulted in the resignation of Secretary Bryan, who contended for a policy of warning Americans off belligerent ships. He resigned because he thought he could not sign the next note to Germany, which he feared would lead the United States into war.

Dr. Dumba, the Austrian ambassador, later recalled at the request of President Wilson, sent to the Berlin foreign office a message which was represented as stating substantially that Bryan had intimated to the ambassador that the vigorous tone of the American notes should not be regarded in Berlin as too warlike. Secretary Lansing, Bryan's successor, in his reply to the German note, took issue with every contention Germany had set up in the question of the Falaba and Lusitania cases, denied flatly the correctness of the statement that the Lusitania was armed, and reminded Germany that it was the duty of the United States "to speak with solemn emphasis to call the attention of the imperial German government to the grave responsibility which the United States conceives that it has incurred in this tragic occurrence, and to the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests." The note averred that the declaration of a submarine war zone could not abbreviate the rights of Americans on lawful journeys, and renewed the representations of the note transmitted to Germany on May 15. Germany did not reply until July 8 and the rejoinder was preponderant. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 8)

Inside and Outside

Inside and outside, our boys' suits reflect the thorough study we have made of boys' requirements.

Outside, the smart appearance of the garments shows that we know that boys want good style and plenty of it, and that they appreciate distinction as well as father and big brother.

Inside, the quality and strength of materials and workmanship show that we know what the boy is going to do to the suit when he wears it. We make doubly sure that our garments are rip-proof and tear-proof—as nearly "boy-proof" as it is possible to make them. That's why mothers have learned the economy of buying boys' clothes at ROOS BROS., San Francisco, Oakland and Berkeley stores.

ately characterized by American newspapers, not as a note, but as an address by Foreign Minister von Jagow to the American people. In official circles it was said to come no nearer to meeting the American contentions than did the former German note. It made a counter proposal that the United States agree upon a certain number of neutral passenger steamers for traffic between the United States and Europe, which the German government offered to guarantee against submarine attack, providing they carried no contraband.

The nature of the reply was regarded officially as convincing evidence that Germany was holding the submarine warfare negotiations as a club over the United States to force this government into some action to compel Great Britain to relax the food blockade. President Wilson steadily refused to permit the diplomatic negotiations of the United States with one belligerent to become entangled with the relations of another. The United States replied on July 21 that the German note was "very unsatisfactory." The United States, it declared, was "keenly disappointed." Submarine attacks without warning endangering Americans and other neutrals, were characterized as "illegal and inhuman" and "manifestly indefensible."

The German retaliation against the British blockade, it maintained, must not interfere with the rights of neutrals, which the note declared were "based upon principles, not expediency, and the principles are immutable."

It declared that the United States would continue to contend for the freedom of the seas "from whatever quarter violated, without compromise and at any cost."

WORDS OF WARNING

The American note concluded with these words of warning:

"Friendship itself prompts it (the United States government) to say to the imperial German government that repudiation by the commanders of German naval vessels of acts in violation of these rights must be regarded by the government of the United States, when they affect American citizens, as deliberately unfriendly."

The negotiations at this time were brought into the realm of "informal conversations." Secretary Lansing and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, it was thought that much could be accomplished by personal contact which was lost in a cold exchange of documents.

Meanwhile the Arabic was sunk on August 19. It is noted that the United States and Germany had reached the point of a break. Then on September 1 came a rift in the threatening situation. Count von Bernstorff presented this written assurance to Secretary Lansing:

"There will not be sunk by our submarines without warning and without safety of non-combatants provided that the liners do not try to escape or offer resistance."

The United States had all along contended not for the safety of "liners" alone, but for the immunity of all peaceful merchant vessels. The word "liners" was the complex point in Germany's assurance and a complete agreement on which it actually meant never was reached.

DISAVOWS SINKING

More hopefulness was added to the situation when on October 5 the Arabic case was disposed of by Germany disavowing the sinking and giving renewed assurances that submarine commanders had again been instructed to avoid repetition of the acts which provoked American condemnation.

With that the negotiations reverted to the Lusitania case. Negotiations were delayed by a seeming deadlock over the records in which Germany should acknowledge the illegality of the destruction of the liner. Germany, unwilling to use the word "illegal," substituted the declaration "that a reprisal must not be directed against others than enemy subjects."

A formal communication including such a declaration and expressing regret for loss of American lives, assuming liability and offering reparation in the form of indemnity, was submitted to Secretary Lansing.

A favorable settlement of the controversy seemed by sight when all progress was reduced to nothing by Germany's declaration of a new submarine policy of sinking without warning all armed merchant ships. That precipitated a new situation. President Wilson declined to close the Lusitania settlement while the other issue was pending, and there the whole matter rested while German submarine warfare was continued and new cases involving loss of American lives, piled up.

Finally the accumulation of evidence reached such proportions with the destruction of the Sussex that President Wilson despatched another note to Germany and went before Congress, reviewed the entire situation, and made this declaration: "I have deemed it my duty to say to the imperial German government that if it is still its purpose to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course to pursue, and that unless the imperial German government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of warfare against passenger and freight-carrying vessels, this government can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations altogether."

It will be noted that the President went further than "liners" and said "passenger and freight-carrying vessels."

The wording of the note to Germany was almost identical with the foregoing passage.

REVIEWS DISASTERS

Reviewing the relentless submarine campaign, the last note declared: "No limit of any kind has in fact been set to the indiscriminate pursuit and destruction of merchantmen on all lines and nationalities within the waters constantly extending where these operations have been carried on, and the roll of Americans who have lost their lives on ships thus attacked and destroyed has grown month by month until the ominous toll has mounted into the hundreds."

"Again and again the imperial German government has given this government its solemn assurances that at least passenger ships would not be thus dealt with, and yet it has again and again permitted its undersea commanders to disregard those assurances with entire impunity."

PAPERS OF NATION COMMENT ON NOTE

Herald, Fresno.—The German note is pathetic, advisory, a little conciliatory—just enough—friendly, courteous and amounts to nothing. Germany does not care. The extreme cleverness of it all comes in placing the burden of past and future conduct of the war squarely on the shoulders of the United States. The next move is up to us.

Times, Seattle.—Germany does not accede to President Wilson's demands. Instead, the Imperial government has made an answer cleverly designed to involve the United States in further diplomatic discussion. Whatever the President's decision, the United States of America will stand solidly behind him.

New York Evening Sun.—We cordially hope our government may find in this note the solution of our own difficulty, but as a general indication as respects the prospects of peace, it fills us with gloom. Plainly Germany is not in the humor yet to heed the counsels of wisdom or humanity. She is still world defiant.

New York Globe.—This reply is thus not to be accepted as a settlement of the matters in dispute between the United States and Germany. There is no compliance or substantial compliance. No choice would thus seem open to our government but to carry out its declared intention to sever relations.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.—In effect the note seems to be a reiteration that practice shall be made to conform with professions in the matters concerned.

Free Press, Cincinnati.—Germany has gone far in meeting the proposals of President Wilson. Unless President Wilson has made up his mind to break, such an event will not occur. If he does, it is reasonable he will agree to the present German proposals.

Globe, Boston.—It is hard to see why we should give Ambassador von Bernstorff his passports. If we do Germany will have proved her contention that our neutrality is farcical.

Evening Post, New York.—Germany betrays great anxiety not to break off peaceful relations with the United States. The German government makes damnable faces all through its note, but the central thing required by President Wilson it yields.

Bulletin, Providence.—It (the note) is a brutal mockery of the wounds again and again inflicted upon us. It is a series of studied insults added to a long history of injury. The President must prove that the lofty sentiments he has so often reiterated are not empty words.

Herald, El Paso.—Germany presents a strong case and her criticisms of our government are not wholly unwarranted, but in view of the attitude of President Wilson it is useless for Germany to condition her new ruling upon our compelling England to observe the law; therefore a break seem inevitable.

Telegraph, Portland, Ore.—In other words, Germany is still to remain sole judge both of the efforts and the result of the efforts of this government to stand for itself and the other neutrals, and in the event those results are not satisfactory, it will hold itself free to resume or maintain its policy on the high seas as to it may seem called for by the situation then presented.

The Cleveland Waechter and Anzeiger.—The German answer is that of the strong, the confident, the sure, who win peace without fearing war. It puts the final say up to Mr. Wilson and places before him the chance once more to be the mediator who brings the warring nations together. The decision should be simple. Unfortunately, there is room for doubt which alternative the President will choose.

News, Chattanooga.—The German note is about as satisfactory as could be expected. The immediate issue is whether or not the concession made is sufficient. We believe they will cause a better feeling among the American people.

Chronicle Telegraph, Pittsburgh.—So far as words go, Germany has granted our main contention, but if her action is only temporary and depends on the future course of Great Britain the situation is one fraught with grave peril to our friendly relations.

News, Baltimore.—The United States demanded the establishment of a certain status quo. Germany has established it. How long she can or will maintain it is another question. But for the time being we are left nothing to complain of.

Times, Louisville.—The unofficial text of the German note serves notice that the United States must either force England to end her blockade of foodstuffs or acquiesce in a continuance of Germany's methods of submarine warfare along the lines already laid down.

Good Digestion

is absolutely essential to health. The stomach is the distributing point of the human body. From its action on the food we eat, we get our blood and strength. Hence it is important to keep it in good condition. It is not what is eaten but digested that counts.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

assists digestion because it stimulates the mucous surfaces and healthy action of the stomach to healthy action. By aiding the essential functions of digestion it enables you to obtain better assimilation and thereby the body is furnished all the nutriment the food contains, consequently strength and vigor. Many former sufferers from stomach disorders have been benefited by the judicious use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

"Lady Mayor" Tired of Job, Would Come West

WARREN, Ill., May 5.—Mrs. Angela R. Canfield, the only woman mayor in Illinois, is ready to quit when her term expires next month.

She says she has had a good time but she's tired of being mayor.

Mrs. Canfield, who runs a millinery shop with which to help out her yearly income of $13 as mayor of Warren, is going to close out her business and go to California to live.

"Rounding up my boys, the councilmen, was great amusement," Mrs. Canfield said today. "My children decided one night that they did not want to call me mayor, and would rather call me president. I told them that Webster says mayor formerly meant one who kept herds of cattle. They didn't put anything over on me.

Here are some of the improvements Mrs. Canfield has accomplished since she took office:

Abolished wife beating and spitting on streets; stopped automobile speeding; closed all pool halls; caused the covering of all canals, streets and vegetables displayed for sale and forced economy in electric and gas lighting.

TENNIS KING TO WED.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 5.—Smiling and happy, Stanley Murray, former Stanford tennis captain and present national indoor tennis champion, arrived here last night to take Miss Ramona McKendry of Palo Alto, his classmate, to New Jersey to become his bride. Miss McKendry was a prominent member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

"Oakland Nut," New Mascot for City

"I am an Oakland nut. What kind of a nut are you?"

This is the inscription on the pedestal of a queer little statue that arrived at the Chamber of Commerce today, the latest bidder for the fame of being Oakland's official mascot.

The "Oakland Nut," the work of a local artist, is something like a "Billiken" and something like an acorn. In fact, he is an acorn, but with a cheerful smile on his nut-like face, and a pair of minute arms and legs. He sits erect, smiling at the world, and proclaiming that it's good to be an "Oakland Nut" after all.

The queer little statue is being kept on exhibit at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

WORLD-NATION, IS NEW PEACE PLAN

Countries, Joined Under Constitution, Urged by Former Secretary.

NEW YORK, May 5.—A new world government, that might be called the United Sovereignities of the Earth, with a constitution patterned somewhat after that of the United States, was suggested by Leslie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the treasury, in an address before the World Court League at Carnegie Hall here last night.

No war in the last hundred years has resulted from any justifiable cause, said Mr. Shaw, and he referred to the present relations between the United States and Germany, the Japanese objections with regard to the Californian legislation, and other questions that were outside of justifiable matters. Thus far no plan had been formulated for the determination of non-justifiable causes, the world relying only on the hope that some amicable settlement could be reached in such cases.

"Following the Revolutionary War," Mr. Shaw said, "this country existed for six years under Articles of Confederation, but they were more precarious than the preceding seven years of war. Then 'we, the people, for the purpose of forming a more perfect Union, etc., adopted a Constitution, and for the first time insured peace between states and rendered impossible any non-justifiable causes of war. Under our Constitution, it is unthinkable that any official or the legislature of New York could insult or outrage the dignity of Pennsylvania. All justifiable questions between the states can now be determined in the courts."

NEW GOVERNMENT, NEEDED.

"The only possible thing I see by which a world court can be created and clothed with adequate powers is in conjunction with the creation of a new government. This new government can be given any appropriate name, but I suggest the United Sovereignities of Earth. This would involve a Constitution patterned as far as practicable after the Constitution of the United States of America. Under our Constitution, each sovereign state must be a republic, but under the proposed Constitution each sovereignty composing the United Sovereignities would have to be permitted to continue its present form of government. It would also require a Congress, a chief executive under some name, a court, a standing army and navy sufficient to enforce the peace of the world and each of the several sovereignities would have to be limited in the size of their respective army and navy, the size of their national guards and the number of their armed ships."

MONROE DOCTRINE.

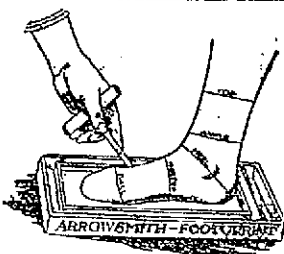

"Many difficulties would arise and perhaps the first and most serious would be the necessity of securing recognition of the Monroe Doctrine and the guaranty that the existing form of government of each of the sovereignities composing the United Sovereignities should be continued. This would simply be a new and larger a plinius union. The plinius, of course, would be the United States, Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Holland, Denmark, and such other sovereignities as might be from time to time admitted into the Union. It is somewhat doubtful whether the European countries would recognize the Monroe Doctrine, but this would scarcely be necessary if the Constitution contained a provision that all rebellions and invasions should be suppressed and that no acquisitions of territory by any of the sovereignities would be permitted except by the consent of all the sovereignities."

Mr. Shaw said he was fully convinced that no more treaty or compact between nations would prevent war. "We had a treaty of amity with Mexico when we went to war with her in 1846 and this was renewed and had not been abrogated when we went to war with her again in 1915 and 1916 and she was captured and held Vera Cruz," he said. "We had a treaty of amity with Columbia when we refused to permit her to suppress a rebellion within her own territory."

Calve Heirloom Given to Woman as Reward

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Mrs. Milton

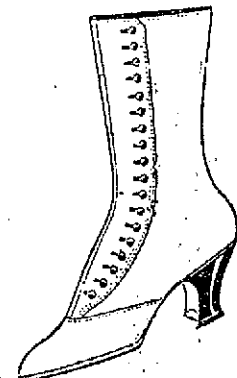

Meyer of San Francisco yesterday saved Mrs. Calve $500 in cash, a $5000 heirloom and her theatrical contract and won one of the prized Calve heirlooms. En route to Los Angeles Mrs. Calve went into the observation car with her husband. When she left the coach her handbag opened and her wallet fell to the car floor. Mrs. Meyer later picked it up. Mrs. Calve discovered her loss and returned frantically to the car. A brilliant, heirloom in the Calve family, was the reward.

Ah! that's coffee!

Fine coffee has a flavor that can't be described—you must taste it to know. You must come down to breakfast some morning—soon—and start the day right with one or two cups of Schilling's Best. You, too, will say "Ah! that's coffee!"

Schilling's Best is fine coffee, protected in its goodness by vacuum-sealed tins. Using these tins makes such coffee possible, by permitting us to grind it evenly, take-out the objectionable chaff and seal-in the full flavor of fresh roasted coffee.

Its economy is astonishing, although the price by the pound is not low. It goes further than any coffee we know of. When you use Schilling's Best, it's well to follow directions.

Sold only through grocers.

Convict, Near Death, Paroled From Prison

SALFERN, Ore., May 5.—Slowly dying with consumption, Julian A. Mock, convicted of murder and sent to the penitentiary from Jackson county in 1910, has received a conditional pardon from Governor Withcombe. The pardon was granted on condition that Mock go to Missouri, where he has relatives.

Mock killed Jesse Smith with a heavy hunting knife in a card room at Medford. Appealing to the parole board for a pardon, former District Attorney Althea declared that a woman incited Mock to kill Smith.

Rancher Who Shot at Autos Judged Sane

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—W. H. Thompson, a rancher who with his wife was declared insane by the county lunacy commission recently because of the couple's alleged action in shooting at passing automobiles, was declared sane today by a jury in the Superior Court in an instructed verdict. Mrs. Thompson previously was found sane in a jury trial.

The Thompsons were charged with insanity after they held off a sheriff's posse for two days. They mounted guard at opposite ends of their ranch house, signaling to each other when members of the posse approached. Many shots were fired, the officers said.

FOOD COST HIGH, FIGURES SHOW

Department of Labor Issues Data on Market Prices.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Food for the average family costs slightly more now than it did a year ago, according to figures published today by the department of labor. Prices as a whole were five per cent higher during February than they were in February of last year. A decline in the price of eggs from January to February went down prices as a whole about two per cent.

Food articles sold for nine per cent more last February than in February five years ago. Only five foods declined in price in the last year—plate boiling beef, lard, corn meal and peas. Potatoes increased in price during the year, but still were eight per cent lower in February last than in February four years ago.

Surprise Shower Is Given Miss Faustina

SAN LEANDRO, May 5.—Miss Olivia Faustina, one of the most popular members of the younger social set of this city, whose engagement to Mario Prodrich, an engineer, was recently announced, was given a surprise shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Faustina, on Santa Avenue last night. Forty-five friends of the young couple were present and brought with them many valuable gifts. Decoration of the Faustina home was carried out in pink and green. Dancing and games followed by a late supper were the order of the evening.

Miss Faustina will wed Frederick in the fall of this year. Both are well known in this community. The bride-elect is a member of one of San Leandro's pioneer families. Frederick is an engineer with the C. L. Best Gas-Engine Company in Elmhurst.

Auto Replaces Old Mountain Stage

The automobile has replaced the last of California's famous mountain stage lines. Bill Spier, famous stage owner, whose Lake county stages are known to tourists all over the world, this morning unloaded from freight trains arriving in Oakland, a consignment of automobile stages, to replace the 40 horse-drawn stages that for years have plied to the various resorts on Clear Lake.

"I had more fun driving horses," he declared, "but California is no wild west any more, and we have to keep up with the times."

The Fashion Show of Outdoor Apparel

at the Auditorium last night revealed the incomparable beauty of Capwell stocks.

We have all grades at all prices from inexpensive to expensive. In addition to the large stock on hand, the following new garments have just come from the marking room, and they are to be followed daily by others, so that the stock will be kept up in all details so far as possible for the influx of buyers now replenishing their wardrobes for the season. It would hardly seem possible to have improved upon the many pretty designs that we all remember in last year's fashions, but this summer sees so many radical changes in cut and color that last year's dresses are simply impossible. So an early selection is suggested, when you are certain to get your favorite material and color.

Middy and Coat Suits $3.95

And there are the beautiful flowered crelones that give such a Watteau effect. The corduroys in white, rose, Copenhagen and gold are greatly in demand. Made in the regulation sports lines. The white cotton goods—pique, galatee, gabardine and fancy weaves—were made up into skirts of so many kinds that even brief description is impossible. An inspection is necessary and will well repay you.

- The Corduroys are.....$3.95 and up
 - The Awning Stripes.....$2.45, $3.95 and up

CHILDREN AIDED IN MURDER PLAN

Mrs. Schwoerer Says That She Laid Plot for Husband's Death.

STOCKTON, May 5.—Declaring that she, with her two children, planned and aided in the murder of her husband, and that Jack Silva, who confessed that he and he only, was the murderer, was only trying to shield them, Mrs. George Schwoerer, wife of the teamster murdered at Angels on Monday night, is now also locked in the county jail. Her young sister refuses to corroborate her story.
Both he and the woman are of Indian blood.

Silva said that following a first ineffectual attempt to kill Schwoerer at Metairie last Friday night, he had thrown Schwoerer's pistol, loaned him by Mrs.
Schwoerer, into the Stanislaus river.
Monday evening they picked up an iron rod, a prospector's pick—from the yard and Silva selected it as his weapon. It was then, his wound dressed at the hospital in Angels, that Schwoerer returned home. Silva remained in hiding behind the house while Schwoerer ate the supper that his wife had prepared for him.

Finally the family retired down for the night. The woman, with her little girl, slept in one bed. The husband reclined in an adjoining bed in the same room.
The thirteen-year-old son slept in an adjoining bedroom with other children.

In his stocking feet Silva crept into the house, armed with the iron. The woman says she heard a door creak. She thinks her husband heard it, too, for he sat up in bed. His shotgun stood at the head of his bed. Mrs. Schwoerer says she coaxed her husband to lie down and try to get some sleep.

Then Silva crept into the room and struck her husband over the head with the bar.

"He wanted to go, but I was afraid and so he stayed a couple of hours," said the woman in her confession. "I threw the iron bar down the well."
They agreed that it would be best for the woman to maintain that she had slept during the night, discovering the murder when she awoke in the morning.

Lured by Woman, Robbed by Men

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Lured to a room in the Bank Hotel, 839 Montgomery street, by a woman this morning, John Ferrari was set upon by two men who beat him into unconsciousness and robbed him of $100 and a gold watch.
Ferrari told the police that when he reached the apartment there was a second woman and two men referred to as Charles and Jerry. One struck him from behind and it was several hours later before he recovered his senses.

Estate of Julien Sontag Is $10,000

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Letters of administration were applied for in Judge Grubb's court today in the estate of Julien Sontag, vice-president of the West Coast Life Insurance Company, who died April 16. The property is valued at less than $10,000 and the letters are asked for by a daughter, Maria S. Murray, who is the sole heir.
Sontag was a brother of Colonel Charles Sontag of the state prison board.

PROPERTY RIGHTS, WESTFALL FIGHT

Husband Makes Move to Continue Battle in Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—New evidence of the plans of Mrs. Jessie S. Westfall, wife of Samuel H. Westfall, who is alleged to have deserted him to seek "the higher life," and who has been defendant in a divorce action, was furnished today in an affidavit filed by Westfall asking that the injunction preventing a disposal of the community property be

After indicating him to go on a sketching trip up in the Santa Clara valley,
Mrs. Westfall left San Francisco March 13, leaving a note of explanation. In today's affidavit Westfall says that this letter contained, among other things, this message:

"THAT IS, TO YOU."

"Sophie and I have gone away—we will not come back (that is, to you)."
On April 3, Westfall asserts, his wife sent a communication to her local attorney and trustee, Samuel H. Day, in which she said: "Show copy of this letter to Samuel. I left San Francisco after securing best legal advice in the country and am sure of my property rights. I will remain East indefinitely.
As my California representative, please close my house April 4, discharge and pay cook, discontinue phone, turn off gas." Westfall declares that last Sunday Day called upon him and endeavored to persuade him to go to Salt Lake and indignantly to reject a compromise with his wife, explaining he was satisfied he could induce Mrs. Westfall to agree to an equal division of the property. On Wednesday Westfall received a letter from his wife, the details of which he does not make public.

IN FRIENDS' HOME.

Judge Mogan continued the restraining order in operation until May 15 in order to give a further opportunity for Westfall to serve the papers on his wife. She is now at the home of E. B. Critchlow, who wrote Westfall that she could remain at his home as long as she desired.

Two Near Death of Asphyxiation

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Two men are at the Central Emergency hospital unconscious from gas asphyxiation and one of them has but a slim chance of recovery. Chris Eg-gshere, a baker, was found unconscious in the kitchen of his home, 2480 Pine street, with gas flowing from a stove before him. There was no money on his person and it is believed that he may have attempted suicide from a stove before him.

Daughter of Late Dr. Myra Knox Dies

Following an illness of several months, Miss Margaret Knox, daughter of the late Dr. Myra Knox, passed away at her home, 838 Fourteenth street, today. Miss Knox had been an invalid for some time.
She is survived by a sister, Miss Bertha Knox, of this city. She was 35 years of age.

Horner Is Better After Operation

on his stomach at the Alameda says that the patient rallied well from the operation and hopes are entertained for a speedy recovery.

Girl Hurt in Auto Accident; One Flees

Miss Ruth Swift, a guest at the Hotel Menlo, is in a private hospital suffering from injuries she received last evening when she was thrown from the automobile in which she was driving to the hotel as the result of a collision with another car.
The driver of the second automobile did not stop, Miss Swift said, but proceeded on his way without offering her any assistance. Miss Swift received cuts and bruises about the face and arms.

Pins in Red Too Much for Patience of Wife

Objection on the part of Mrs. Mary E.
P. Svoboda, 2304 Alameda avenue, Ala-ameda, to sleeping in a bed which her husband is alleged to have placed pins has led to her filing a divorce action against Steven M. Svoboda. She further recites that he was accustomed to frightening her by hiding behind doors and that he also hid her needle work in order to harrass her.

TO JOIN FESTIVAL.—Portuguese fraternal organizations in this end of the MARKET RISING ON CITY SQUARE

Booths and Stalls Are Being Erected for Tomorrow's Fete.

Tomorrow is "Belgian Market Day."

Workmen, carpenters, tentmakers and society women swarmed over the City Hall square today. Booths were erected. Guy flags were hung on the old oak and about the thirty market tents that tomorrow will sell merchandise of every conceivable sort for the relief of war-stricken Belgium.

The "Belgian Market" is not to be a "society affair." It is a common effort of the whole city to aid a suffering people far away. It will be a market where every housewife may purchase, at the same price she pays in any other market, those goods she uses in her home. No high prices are to be charged in the name of "charity."

"Eat your lunch here and take your Sunday dinner home" is the legend on the signs being placed about the square. The center of the park will be an open air dining-room.
The platforms from election tents have been taken down for a floor. About them are the many booths where all manner of foods, household goods and curios may be purchased. Hot coffee will be served in the open-air restaurant on the lawn, under the old oak whose withered branches will be hidden by gay flags and bunting, where the national colors of America and Belgium will mingle.

IN CHARGE.
The market is being conducted under the auspices of the Oakland branch of the Belgium Relief Commission, of which Mrs. Mark L.
Reine is chairman, and Mrs. Willard Williamson is chairman of the special committee arranging the market.

Mrs. F. J. Webster has been in charge of the general details of the work, acting as secretary at the market headquarters established in the Federal building through the courtesy of Joseph F. Carlston.

The market will sell things of beauty as well as articles of utility.
Mrs. Harold Bonstead will direct a booth where old-fashioned nosegays will be sold. Mrs. Edson Adams and her assistants will sell potted plants, and there will be book and art booths and other attractions.

FOOD BIG FEATURE

But the most interesting feature of the market, however, will be the food and household booths. Mrs. Wickham Havens, assisted by Mrs. Peter Kane, Mrs. Robert Newell and others, will sell home-made cakes. Mrs.
E. L. Brayton, Mrs. Thomas Nelson and Miss Carmen Ghirardelli, assisted by Mrs. Fritz Henshaw, Miss Alene
Edoff and others, will make and sell French doughnuts. Mrs. William Thornton White and Mrs. Charles Favre will have delicatessen booths. Mrs. Jessica Davis Nahl will preside at the salad booth. Mrs.
J. P. H. Dunn and her assistants will sell vegetables. Mrs. George Hamner and Mrs. Tyler Henshaw will sell candies, and Mrs. William Knowles and Miss Helen Kinsell will also have fruit stands. Miss Matilda Brown will sell coffee.

HOW TO GET STRONG

A Simple Remedy

Whatever the cause, we want to say to every person who needs strength, you need Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, as it is the most efficient strength creator we have in our store. Here is proof from Dorchester, Mass.

"I don't know what we would do without Vinol in our family. I was weak, nervous and run down as the result of an operation, and Vinol restored my strength. Then Grandmother had a nervous breakdown, and Vinol built her up and restored her health and strength after everything else had failed. We have used Vinol for 12 years in our family, and would not be without it in the house."
Myrtle L. Tealy, Dorchester, Mass.

We believe in Vinol because we know it is a great strength creator—due to its extractive medicinal elements of fresh cod liver, without oil, combined with peptonate of iron and beef peptone, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine, so we always return the purchase money if Vinol fails to benefit those who buy it. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

you live there is a Vinol drug store.

NEW DRIVE LAUNCHED ON VERDUN KEY

Kill No. 304 Is Scene of Terrific Attack in Night

Advance Trenches Are Taken by Kaiser; Loses on Left

PARIS, May 5.—Germans launched terrific attacks during the night against French positions north of Hill 304, the key stone of the French defense northwest of Verdun. The charge was preceded by a violent artillery action.

The Germans entered advanced trenches at a few points. It was officially admitted, but elsewhere they were hurled back with losses.

East of the Meuse and on the Woivre plain there was an intermittent bombardment. South of the Meuse a German attack failed.

The French successes on the left bank of the Meuse have been of greater importance than indicated by first reports, according to a semi-official statement issued last night. The French troops, by a skillfully prepared and brilliantly executed operation, have thrown back the German advance on the northwestern of Verdun Hill beyond the line held at the beginning of March. The enemy has thus lost by a simple stroke his gains painfully made by two months of continuous costly attacks.

The Germans, surprised by the suddenness of the French attack, were thrown back in disorder and suffered exceptionally heavy losses, particularly from the preliminary bombardment. The large number of Germans killed explains why so few prisoners were taken.

BERLIN, May 5.—The capture of several French trenches southeast of Juncourt on the Verdun front was announced today by the war office. Repeated French attacks against a German position west of Dond Man Hill broke down.

Petersen Is Part of Plot Against Self

"Keep Fred down town till about 9 o'clock tonight," Mrs. Fred Petersen told Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen yesterday. "It is the twenty-fifth anniversary of my entering the militia and I'm going to have some of my friends up here to give him a little surprise."

Captain Petersen with painstaking instruction induced his brother to stay down to supper with him, and then took him round for an hour to the motor power house. Then they went home, to 388 Clifton Street.

The house was dark. They entered the hallway and Fred Petersen suddenly switched on the lights.

Captains Frank Lyns and Charles Beck sat on either side of the door. In the parlor were gathered the members of the police inspectors' bureau. There were other friends of Petersen in the room. A host of welcome greeted Captain Petersen.

Petersen gasped and then entered into the merriment, and a stag party that was in a sense a celebration followed. It was a festive gathering of all friends. Associates of Petersen in the police department who were present were:

Captain Lyns, Captain Beck, Inspectors Agnew, Caldwell, Hodgkins, Wallman, Quigley, McSorley, Kyle, Powers, Green, Tobin, Paulson, Drew, McCarthy, Dutton, Emigh, Flynn, Havens.

The other guests were Captain Fred Petersen, Major Ralph J. Petersen, Captain W. J. Petersen, Harry Miller, Jim McVey, Dick Brown, Dave Moir, William Moir, George Hull, Tim Dorgan, Emil Heindrichs, Meyer Herman.

Defense Lawyer Is Fined at Oroville

OROVILLE, May 5.—Refusing to cease interrupting District Attorney Leonard, who was questioning Gertrude Lamson, chief witness against Rev. Madison Slaughter in his second trial on a charge of attacking her, Defense Counsel Guy Kennedy was fined $10 for contempt by Judge Gregory today. The defense completed its cross-examination of the Lamson girl during the afternoon session.

Gertrude Lamson, on re-direct examination, testified that her mother had forbidden her to see Assistant District Attorney Harry Davis when she first made the charges against Slaughter and had several times refused to let Davis in the house without a court order. On the other hand, the attorneys for the defense were allowed to see her at any time, the girl testified.

Carranza Guards
Stop U. S. Trucks

COLUMBUS, N. M., May 5.—Thirty Carranza customs guards stopped an American motor supply train at Las Palomas, eight miles south of the border, today, and ordered the commander to remove American flags flying from the cars. The Mexicans, who had been celebrating "Cinco de Mayo," the Mexican national holiday, informed the American flags could not be allowed on Mexican soil. No attention was paid to the demand and no trouble resulted.

Memorial Services in Honor of Atty. Creely

Memorial services for the late James H. Creely, attorney, who died last Tuesday night, were held in the Court Room of the Superior Court today noon by the members of the Oakland Bar Association. President M. C. Chapman presided and a set of resolutions prepared by a committee consisting of Judges J. J. Allen, Philip M. Carey and Judge Martin Smith were spread upon the minutes of the court. The six judges of the court sat en banc. The court adjourned out of respect to the memory of the late attorney. The funeral services were held this morning from St. Francis de Sales church.

FASHIONS.
There are fashions in medicine as well as in music. The old-time cathartic pills with their harsh drastic effects have gone out and it is high time that they had. In their place we have the mild laxative and gentle cathartic which Chamberlain's Tablets is one of the most popular. When the proper dose is taken the effect is so pleasant and agreeable and so natural that you do not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Chamberlain's Tablets also strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

CLARK TO PRESIDE AT ST. LOUIS MEET

House Speaker to Be Permanent Chairman, According to Wilson Managers.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, for temporary chairman, and Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives, for permanent chairman.

This is the tentative plan of President Wilson's political managers for the Democratic national convention at St. Louis.

The President's supporters express confidence that the administration group will control the convention, although certain disquieting reports regarding William Jennings Bryan's attitude have caused some uneasiness.

Cement Merger May Cause Stock Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Plans for the merger of large cement companies of the Pacific Coast and in Texas are believed to be under negotiation owing to the presence in San Francisco of representatives from different concerns. The proposed merger came to light with the filing of a suit at Hollister by J. A. McCarthy, a promoter, against the Old Mission Portland Cement Company. The plaintiff asks that the defendant be restrained from disposing of its large holdings.

McCarthy alleges that he had a contract to sell stock of the Old Mission Company, but that the permit was held up by the Commissioner of Corporations. Then the company re-incorporated in Nevada, he says, for the express purpose of selling its stock to others and entering the merger to his own disadvantage.

Deciduous Fruit Crop Below Normal

SACRAMENTO, May 5.—Indications point to a deciduous fruit crop in California far below normal, according to the crop report issued today by George P. Weldon, chief deputy state horticultural commissioner.

Deciduous fruits are in a much poorer condition than a year ago, according to Weldon. The prospect regarding citrus fruits and olives is much better, though it is a little early in the season to draw conclusions regarding these crops.

Government Employee

BOSTON, May 5.—Five hundred thousand persons, most of them women and children, are in a wretched condition in the vilayets of Aleppo and Damascus in Eastern Turkey, according to a dispatch received from the American board of commissioners for foreign missions, at its home office here today.

The estimate of the number of refugees driven from their homes by various places to these two vilayets was made by the American consul at Damascus, Mr. Peet said. Their condition was described to him by German missionaries, whose work he praised.

He said that he had applied to the German embassy at Constantinople for assistance in relieving the suffering with the result that the German consuls and ministers were instructed to co-operate with the American missionaries.

Five Persons Cut in L. A. Auto Accident

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Five persons narrowly escaped death this morning and all were cut and bruised, in a collision of automobiles at Wilshire boulevard and the city limits.

The automobile owned by R. Boldino, bound for Venice, was crashed into by the automobile of B. W. Meade. Both machines were badly wrecked.

In the car driven by Boldino were his daughter, Ruth, 13, who was cut about the face and body, and his son, Roland, 13, who was also cut about the hands and arms. Mr. Boldino was also cut and bruised.

GARDEN CITY, N. His left ankle was fractured and he was badly cut and bruised. Harold Blakeley, who accompanied him on the flight, also was painfully hurt.

INDIAN OIL LAND Case Set for Hearing

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The case against Secretary Lane by Franklin Shaw and others of the Ojaga tribe of Indians in Oklahoma, who seek to restrain the secretary from approving leases to Indian oil lands signed recently by Ojaga chiefs, was set for hearing in the United States District Court here today.

The secretary in his answer to the suit denies that the interior department exercised undue influence over the tribal council in the signing of the leases.

Members of the tribe charge that oil operators who are obtaining new leases on Ojaga oil and gas lands are getting them for a fraction of their value.

FINDS DEAD MAN IN ARMS OF WIFE

Weeping Woman Sits on Road Holding Her Husband Hit by Car.

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Hurrying back through darkness to find the victim his car had struck before daylight today, Siskerman T. O. Fetz came upon Mrs. Frank Beidel sitting on the ground with the battered body of her dead husband in her arms.

Almost demented with grief the woman was crying hysterically for him to speak to her. Beidel, 30, had been struck by a Glendora car. The car was proceeding at such high speed that Berg did not realize he had struck a man until after the accident had occurred. Two small children survive the dead man.

SPEED COP AIDED BY UNKIND FATE

Dr. Grimmer Hurlled From Car in Effort to Race From Officer.

IRVINGTON, May 5.—Dr. E. W. Grimmer, prominent physician of this place and Bert Hesley, rancher of the Irvington section and known as an athlete, were seriously injured when their machine plucked off the road into a fence near Niles yesterday afternoon after an unsuccessful effort to outdistance a traffic policeman.

Dr. Grimmer incurred two broken ribs and internal injuries, and Hesley's right arm and two ribs were broken. They were removed to the home of Dr. Grimmer.

Dr. Grimmer was driving at more than 50 miles an hour according to Deputy District Attorney Myron Harris. Traffic Policeman L. A. Solon said he stopped the men on the boulevard for speeding, and ordered them to turn down a side road and drive to Niles. Solon was to follow along behind on his motorcycle.

Dr. Grimmer started off with a burst of speed, not for Niles but for Irvington, says Solon. Opposite the California Nurseries Dr. Grimmer lost control of the car, which crashed into the fence, demolishing the auto and hurling the occupants several feet.

After the injured men had been removed to Dr. Grimmer's home Solon returned to the highway. He caught another speeder, he says, this one E. F. Stone, a garage owner of 8135 High street, Oakland. Two men were seated in the back seat of Stone's car. Stone was ordered to drive to Niles, where Solon rode beside the machine on his motorcycle. When the jail was reached Solon, glancing backward, saw that the two men whom he believed were in the back seat had disappeared.

Hires Jitney to Pursue Child

New Contempt Charge Made in Case

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—An exciting jitney chase on Market street followed the discovery of Mrs. Alice Rogers of her husband, Samuel Lucius Rogers, of the Stockton Fire and Enamel Brick Company, in a machine with her son, Glenn H. Rogers, whom she charges he abducted. A bench warrant has been issued for Rogers' arrest for contempt for failure to produce the child in court.

Mrs. Rogers told Judge Graham that she was on a Haight street car today when she saw Rogers and her son, both of whom were believed to be in Idaho, riding in a jitney. She stopped the car, ran toward the machine, but Rogers ordered the chauffeur to speed up. In a second jitney she pursued, but could not catch the other car. On her information that she believed the child was at her mother-in-law's home, deputy sheriffs brought the latter, Mrs. M. E. Rogers, before Judge Graham, but she declared that she did not know the whereabouts of her son and grandson.

A seventh warrant for contempt was then issued against Rogers.

LORD ROBERTS AS HOST TOMORROW

Smallest Living Comedian to Meet Children at Pantages.

Little Lord Roberts, the famous midget comedian, and smallest man in the world, will play the host Saturday after the Pantages theater, where he is starring. The noted little comedian is to meet the children of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. He has met their fathers at the Elks' clubs and other places during the week, but he wants to meet the little ones. He is mostly bigger than he is, at that—before he leaves Oakland. They have crowded the Pantages during the week to see his act, and he wants to thank them personally.

So Saturday, after the matinee, he is to invite all the children and their mothers to come up on the stage and shake hands with him. He will tell about himself, answer questions, tell the story of his life and experiences, and otherwise enlighten the little ones about his strange career.

Little Lord Roberts is the smallest living comedian. He is just two feet tall, although 22 years of age. He is a perfect man mentally, and has been to college. In fact, he will tell the children that only going to school taught him how to earn a living when too little to do a regular man's work.

He is one of the highest-priced stars on the stage and one of the most famous men in the world. He makes a success, not because he is a curiosity, but because he is a real actor.

Next week Raul Pereira, the famous violinist, and his orchestra, and Eddie Lloyd, dancing of the English music halls, come to the Pantages.

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"I had a case of skin trouble that was pretty bad. It came out in pimples and sore of blotches and would itch and burn and cause me to wake in the night. The itching and burning were so severe that I scratched the affected parts by scratching. They were principally on my face and were very annoying.

"After so many speaking favorably of Cuticura Soap and Ointment I decided to try them. I noticed great relief after having used a quarter of a box of Cuticura Ointment together with the Soap and in nearly six months I was healed." (Signed) Lester S. Blue Bird Bureau

Department of Good-Fellowship

Yesterday a Good Fellow telephoned to this bureau asking for the address of some destitute family where there would be an opportunity to do some good work. We gave her the address of a family about whom we told you some few nights ago. Remember: Mother sickly and losing her mind; father looking for work, six children—all hungry and ragged. Well after this Good Fellow became acquainted with the facts of the case she straightaway went to her grocer, bought some sugar, flour, coffee, bread, butter, a cabbage, some potatoes, and we forget just what all, then went to her butcher, who provided a Good Fellow also, for after buying some meat for this family and telling the butcher the reason she was getting such a large amount, what did he do but add a donation also of some nice soup meat.

After loading her machine with all of these eatables she headed for this home, which is some distance out of town, and deposited everything right in the very kitchen, which was practically devoid of food.

The mother was so overcome by her feelings that she broke down and cried like a baby, so the Good Fellow, moved and after expressions of thankfulness and gratitude, the Good Fellow made her departure as quickly as possible, for fear that her feelings might also get the better of her.

We don't like to make you people envious by telling you of all of the good things that come into this bureau, but today six of the "goodest" jars of home-made jam were left here with the request that they be given to some family who seldom know such luxuries as "A-J-A." Well, they have gone to a family where there are four little tots, and we have a very vivid picture of four little faces all smeared with jam by this time.

If you can remember back to the time when you were two weeks old and how good your nice warm little crib felt to you at that time, then you will have an idea of how good a crib is going to feel to a little two-week-old baby. He hasn't gotten it yet, but he will have it in a few days, for it has been promised, and this promise, we know, is as good as gold. It's a good thing that this little baby does not have any idea what poverty is, for if he did he would be a very unhappy little boy, for his parents are very poor, but "where ignorance is bliss 'tis folly to be wise." What a blissful little thing this baby must be.

Officers of the Richmond Station have been endeavoring to serve Mrs. Johnson but so far without success. Following the theft of valuable furs and several party dresses from her home as well as jewelry to the amount of several hundred dollars, Mrs. Johnson called the arrest of Mrs. Ray Perrin who had been employed by her.

Next Monday will see the proposed harbor lease readjustment plan, which for some time past has been in the hands of special harbor lease committee officially placed before the harbor development committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The placing of this matter before the committee was delayed until the return from New York of a Chairman Harrison S. Robinson of the committee, who drew the original plan.

Details of the plan for having the estuary drawbridges at Harrison and Webster streets removed will also be taken up, and the work prosecuted actively. An engineering committee will be placed in the field at once to gather data on the shipping menace in the bridges, and other evidence to lay before the army authorities.

Harbor Lease Plans to Be Submitted

WASHINGTON, May 5.—President Smith of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad at the Interstate Commerce Commission's investigation of the road's affairs today proposed to Chairman Meyer an immediate termination of the investigation "through a compromise."

Mr. Smith said he wanted to make his proposal on his own responsibility without submitting it to his counsel. He was not allowed to make it.

Mr. Smith testified at the resumption of the investigation that the Louisville and Nashville had given financial aid to the state of Alabama in 1912 and frequently has aided other commonwealths.

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Local Irish today carried an appeal to Congress for mercy for leaders of the Dublin rebellion. Following a mass meeting here last night, Judge M. W. O'Donnell, president, and Captain P. C. Mulqueeny, secretary of the Friends of Irish Freedom, signed a lengthy appeal to Congressman William D. Stephens at Washington, requesting him to put the matter before Congress.

Joy Riders Wreck Stolen Machine

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—A joy ride resulting in the wrecking of a stolen machine, a pursuit by a deputy sheriff amidst a volley of shots, resulted in the arrest of John Harvey, 18 years old, who was held today for grand larceny. The machine stopped in San Mateo county by Deputy Sheriff Barron is alleged to have been stolen from A. W. Sloane, an automobile agent. Harvey was at the wheel, with a man and a girl sitting in the tonneau. When the sheriff questioned him he threw his car into the high. Barron pursued, firing, and Harvey turned into a byway, crashed into a tree, and all of the occupants were thrown out.

Anderson Project Contracts Awarded

REDDING, May 5.—Directors of the Anderson-Cottonwood Irrigation district awarded first contracts for work on the project today. James Williamson of Modesto will construct the tunnel at Intake, which will cost nearly $30,000, and the main canal between Redding to Panorama Point, between Anderson and Cottonwood, at a cost of $75,000.

F. W. Nelson will build bridges for $15,000. Bids for the metal flumes and concrete works were not acted upon. All other bids were rejected. New bids were called up for May 29 on the dam, the laterals in Churn creek siphon, gates and drops. The contracts already let cover about a quarter of the cost of the entire system.

THE GERMAN REPLY.

Germany has practically yielded to the United States in the submarine controversy, if the apparent meaning of the text of the reply published today can be relied upon.

The response of the German foreign office is not in graceful form, but this fact may be generously obscured under the transcendent fact that it dispels the war cloud. There is now no possibility of an immediate rupture of diplomatic relations between the governments of the United States and Germany.

Germany's wish to make her compliance with international law guaranteeing protection to neutrals contingent upon the ability of this nation to force Great Britain to stop alleged violations of international law, is not unexpected. But the German diplomats would have shown better statesmanship had they made this demand the subject of a separate communication. It ought to be apparent to them that the United States is determined to discuss the question of neutral rights with belligerents only when specific cases of violations of those rights make it necessary to do so; and that this course makes it advisable to discuss each belligerent's offense directly and completely separated from questions at issue with other nations.

This government cannot be expected to permit violations of the established rights of neutrals on the high seas to become confused with the violations of rules of warfare between belligerents. Our interest in the first question is immediate and direct; our interest in the second question becomes so only when it endangers the lives of neutrals.

It must be realized, however, that Germany's allegations that her enemy is violating the law of nations by ordering merchant vessels to proceed aggressively against German submarines are of vital importance. Merchant vessels so proceeding are properly considered war vessels and neutral passengers aboard them are entitled to no protection other than the ship is able to afford them.

If President Wilson recognizes this fact and acts accordingly, there will be no further danger of rupture with Germany. If he does not, Germany may be expected to exercise "complete liberty of decision," which will mean fresh complications.

INDUSTRIAL TREMBLORS.

Many big things are happening in the industrial affairs of the United States. Items of a magnitude which heretofore we have viewed as visionary are recorded with the nonchalance of second nature, and we are not at all immune to the error of passing them over with a neglect of their significance which may be conducive to great general injury.

First, there are the quarterly reports of the two great American steel concerns for the three months ended March 31, 1916. The United States Steel Corporation reports that its net profits for this period were $60,713,624. If this rate is maintained for the whole year the net will be $272,000,000, or twice the net of the best year ever previously experienced. The net profits for January, 1916, were $18,794,912; for January, 1915, it was only $1,687,150. The net earnings of the Bethlehem Steel Company are equally as remarkable, though, owing to the variety of enterprises directly related to the demands of Europe for war material, figures regarding this company are of doubtful meaning in connection with a survey of general conditions. Some years ago Mr. Charles M. Schwab predicted that in a few years United States Steel Corporation would be earning $200,000,000 net annually. His prophecy will be more than verified in 1916.

Second, there is the fact that thirty-one industrial companies have raised the wages of 706,000 employees in the sum of $5,368,872 monthly, or given wage increases of $64,426,000 a year.

At the same time strikes, labor troubles and lockouts, impending or in force, will affect 510,000 workers. A half billion dollars may be lost this year on account of such unemployment. Over forty thousand railway employees are discussing with operators issues which may result not only in strikes, but the tie-up of the nation's rail transportation business, the resultant loss of which would be incalculable.

With such industrial movements as these going on, thorough knowledge of conditions, caution, wisdom and close consideration are necessary everywhere. Conditions are abnormal. The future cannot be figured from the present basis. Operators must be watchful and allow a large margin for variation, but most all, should labor be not deceived. It should not mistakingly attempt to set up conditions in this period of unbalanced prosperity which, when the readjustment comes, may destroy much of the steady gains of the last twenty-five years.

COLONEL HOUSE AVAILABLE.

The New York Sun, independent Democratic newspaper, suggests to President Wilson that he appoint Colonel House, confidential and private ambassador paramount to foreign kings and emperors, chairman of the Democratic national campaign committee to succeed Mr. William F. McCombs, resigned. We think the suggestion a good one. The man from Texas would be able to do the party some service in its relations with the President, for is he not the only man who has been able to get by Doorkeeper Tumulty for confidential talks with the official head of the party? Members of Congress have failed, the cabinet has failed and the late Tom Pence was barred.

Another point in Colonel House's favor is that Tumulty tolerates him and apparently likes him. And Tumulty is an important figure, although nominally only private secretary to the President. He is also a versatile chap. Foreign diplomacy, Mexican religion controversies and public speeches of Democratic congressmen receive from time to time his critical attention. It is not so soon forgotten that Tumulty a few months ago tried to oust Mr. Pence as secretary of the national committee and put in Fred B. Lynch. Mr. McCombs asked (through friends), the President to put a restraining, though kindly, hand on Tumulty's broad shoulder, and the intrigue was halted. Now that Pence is dead McCombs quits, ostensibly to "make a living," but really to get free of interfering private secretaries to presidents. Colonel House has established the reputation for doing nothing exceptionally well, so let him be chairman of the Democratic national organization. It is right in his line.

THE GEORGIA WAY.

Representative William S. Howard of Kirkwood, Georgia, who attended Neel's Academy until he was twelve years of age and then "went to work for himself," has enlightened the world upon the methods of forecasting the weather in Georgia. His contribution to the knowledge of prognostication is to be found in the Congressional Record, in his remarks delivered from the floor of the House in support of his motion to amend the agricultural appropriation bill.

Mr. Howard informs us that there is a man down in Georgia by the name of Snyder who has been competing with the government weather bureau at Atlanta with nothing to aid him but a sourwood stick and has given the weather bureau cards and spades. Also there was Uncle Lindsay Horton, whom his father once owned, that prognosticated without the sourwood stick. But let Mr. Howard speak for himself:

I have been studying the weather business a long time and have been watching it. We have got a man down in Georgia by the name of Snyder who lives in the district of my colleague, Mr. Wise. This man has been competing with the Weather Bureau in Atlanta, Ga., on prognostications. All he has got in the world that I know anything about, or anything else, is that he goes into the woods and gets a sourwood stick that has a fork, and he makes his prognostications with that forked stick. The Weather Bureau is costing $1,700,000 a year, and Snyder has given the Weather Bureau in Georgia cards and spades by his prognostications and is away in the lead. In other words, he hits it twice where they miss it three times. That is about as near as anybody can get to it.

Why, I have an old nigger named Uncle Lindsay Horton that my father owned, and who lived with us for thirty years after the war, and Uncle Lindsay could go out and sort of turn his side to the wind and say, "It ain't going to be rain 'till 'till night," and I would put old Uncle Lindsay, if he were living, up against Chief Marvin or anybody else on guessing what the weather is going to be. It was instinct with him, and that is all it is with these fellows, and we are paying $1,777,000 a year for that.

When it is freezing in Indianapolis and the wind is blowing from the northwest, notify Cincinnati it is going to be cold. That is all it is necessary to do. Is not that plain enough, and is it not economical? Why do you want to spend $1,777,000 of the people's money to perpetuate and increase this thing that we all know is clairvoyance?

Mr. Howard will bet "forty cents to a ginger cake" that the weather bureau is wrong on any day of the year, so long as it does not use the sourwood stick.

Mr. Chester H. Rowell, editor of the Fresno Republican, pondering over the result of last Tuesday's primary, makes this observation: "But frankly, a Republican party made Progressive would have ceased to be Republican. If it cannot be done indirectly, through the Republican name, perhaps it is all the better as making it more likely to be done directly and logically, through the avowedly Progressive organization." We do not wish to be judged as interjecting unseemly queries upon this distressing occasion, but is there any such animal now as a Progressive party?

In the long delay the Senate is permitting in the matter of confirming the appointment of Mr. Brandeis to the Supreme Court an injustice is being inflicted upon Mr. Brandeis. During each day of inaction the presumption that something is wrong with his availability grows. And the country will be harder to convince that whatever action is taken will be based upon the merits of the case. If confirmation is to be voted, why not let Mr. Brandeis get the benefit of early action; if it is to be denied, why the delay?

NOTES and COMMENT

Alameda is to have a city bacteriologist.

President Wilson approves the idea of school buildings as community centers.

"Governor Johnson is silent on the election." Perhaps he is unable to find language that will do justice to the occasion.

"Powerful searchlight surprises New York." Maybe it is sufficiently penetrating to afford an introspection. What else that would produce such an effect?

Silver keeps rising, which is perverse of it, since the said rise can play no political part. Twenty years ago the white metal's gyrations would have figured, as did the "crown of gold."

Another planet has been discovered. There may be danger of an overstock. Some people are having trouble with this little one. Let alone the others that are known and that are being found out.

County Treasurer Kelly "doesn't know what to think," and County Clerk Gross blames it on Johnson "for coming out for Roosevelt." A great many will conclude that Kelly is the nearer right.

Mayor Gill of Seattle advises the wrecking of drug stores that sell liquor. It would appear that prohibition does not entirely prohibit up there, and the law has to be braced up by Judge Lynch.

The Dublin uprising appears to have had the effect of bringing to a quick and decisive conclusion the matter of compulsory military service. Unexpected results often come from unexpected happenings.

If the insurance companies are really competing with one another for a chance to hire the arsonist now in jail here because of his knowledge of and experience in the arson business, it will suggest an original way to get a job.

Some of those who thought there was to be a contest that would hardly interest the sponsors for the Earl ticket are indulging in various and interesting manifestations of surprise. It is said there is some surprise on the other side also.

A Tacoma jury has convicted a man for defaming George Washington: He wrote a letter telling of the unworth of the Father of His Country. Washington drank hard liquor and swore round colonial oaths. But a jury decided that the person who charged these things was a defamer.

HAWAII-MELTING POT.

The bulk of the island population, as every one knows, is Japanese—some 30,000 as against some 24,000 Hawaiians and an equal number of "all Caucasians." Then come Portuguese (not reckoned as Caucasians) and Chinese, nearly even in the census lists—23,000 and 21,000, respectively. Part-Hawaiians (a motley breed) and Filipinos pair, farther down, with some 14,000 each. There are a few thousand each of Porto Ricans, Spanish, and "all others."

Yet this melting-pot is not depressing, like that which you get the full sense of, say, on lower Fifth Avenue at noon. In Hawaii, save for a few Russian peasants, there are no Slavs; there are no Jews; there are virtually no negroes; there is no Levantine scum. The Mediterranean coast, from Gibraltar to Sicily, from Sicily to Jaffa and Crete and Constantinople, is unrepresented; Central Europe and the Balkans have sent nothing. No Ruthenians, no Slovaks, no Lithuanians, no Armenians, no Hungarians. A few Greek hotel-keepers serve to make life tolerable in the smaller towns; but in numbers the Greeks hardly count. Even in Honolulu the white man is in a visual minority; and outside Honolulu nearly all the faces are yellow or brown. The Hawaiian melting-pot at first is picturesque; it ends by being lovable—and being missed. Even the pessimist may find comfort in the fact that the Oriental has no vote. The fat babies in rainbow kimono will have them; but that story is for another day. The Anglo-Saxon is still dominant.—Katherine Phillerton Gerald in Scribner's.

TAFT'S LOYALTY.

Mr. Taft can always be counted on to play the part of a loyal, patriotic, and sublimely American citizen. Throughout the various phases of his successor's administration, he has shown himself ready to give his moral support to Mr. Wilson in any undertaking which affected the vital concerns of the nation. That he does not fail to do so in this gravest of all the situations with which the country has been confronted in these eventful years will surprise nobody, and hardly calls for comment. Yet it is well to note that, in his speech at Chicago, Mr. Taft, while expressing his most earnest hope that Germany may "change her policy and enable us to continue our friendly relations with her," declared that the stand Mr. Wilson has taken is right, and that there is nothing for "a clear-headed, patriotic American to do but to back up our president." And, in spite of the shocking exhibition of malignant partisanship and want of sound patriotism by a few prominent Republican congressmen, there can be no doubt that ex-President Taft speaks the overwhelming sentiment of his fellow-Republicans throughout the Union.—New York Post.

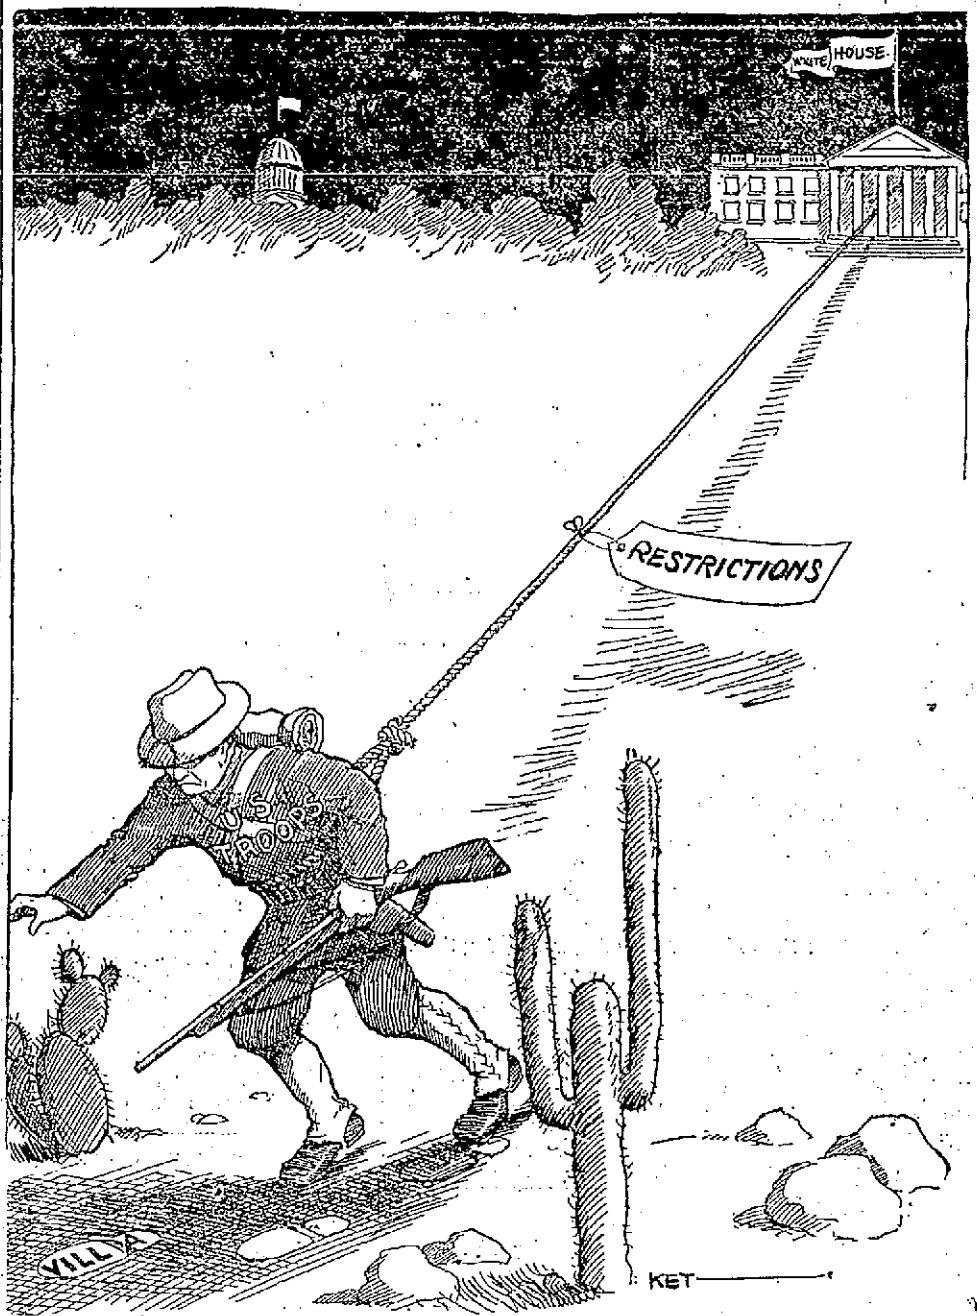

A DISGRACE.

The presidential primary law as it stands in California today is a disgrace. It is a return to the old-time machine politics. Why should it be possible for a Democrat, Socialist, Progressive or Prohibitionist to go to the polls and vote for Republican delegates? A man that votes at a primary election should be forced to vote as he is registered, as that is the only way to prevent wholesale fraudulent voting outside of party lines.—Modesto Evening News.

UNPREPAREDNESS.

More than 6000 rabbits have been killed in California drives. The rabbit is a sort of totem of Pacifism. It is always unprepared and generally gets killed in the long run. If he escapes the vivisectionist he is a very happy rabbit.—Brooklyn Eagle.

VOTING BOOTH.

To the Editor of The Tribune:
The papers Tuesday evening said: "There was a light vote polled in Oakland." No wonder! It was almost impossible to find one's voting booth. A man in our neighborhood went to four before he found the right one. One neighbor had to vote in one place and his wife in another. As there was a tent near my home I expected to vote there, but my sample ballot said corner Brooklyn and Lake boulevard, almost a mile away. A kindly neighbor motored over with me to the tent on the shore of Lake Merritt, two blocks from a habitation. Since I have had the honor of voting the booth has never been twice in the same place. If the watchword of the future be "Efficiency," would suggest that it be adopted by the person who is responsible for the mixup.

INSANITY THREATENS WM. HAASE

Man Who Shot Charles Swanberg Under Observation

Victim of Shooting Improving; Counsel Is Retained

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—William Haase, assailant of Charles O. Swanberg, proprietor of the Portola Louvre Cafe, is on the verge of insanity at his home, and unless sleep can be induced with the aid of narcotics, it is feared that he will lose his reason. Dr. F. C. Keck, the attending physician, visited Haase this morning, and is determining whether or not he will have him removed to the German hospital in order that he may have quiet and may obtain rest with the aid of drugs.

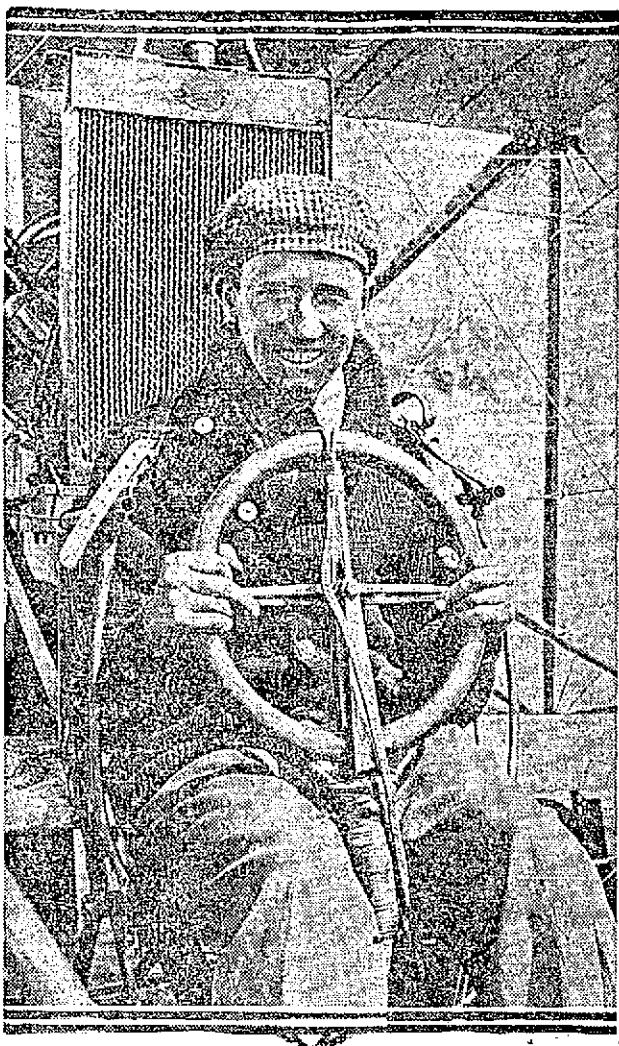

"Haase is in a serious mental condition," explained Dr. Keck. "I have not talked to him about the shooting because he becomes nervous and fretful and almost violent at the least mention of the affair. He seems to be annoyed by the noise of his home, as there are several children running about, and it may be necessary to send him to a hospital. I have been anxious to spare him the expense and leave him in the care of his wife and mother-in-law, but other measures may be necessary."

Attorney Maxwell McNeil, counsel for Haase, denied this morning that he had been retained by Swanberg or any of the latter's friends.

"I know nothing of any secret motive for the shooting or of any facts that have not been made public," he explained. "It was through Dr. Keck that I was retained in this case and I have not talked to any on the other side."

Swanberg continues to improve and was sitting up in bed at Adler's sanitarium.

Local Boy in Air Cuts Fast Figure 8 Youth Turns Flip in Quick Time

HERBERT WOLF, OAKLAND AVIATOR, WHO HAS ACHIEVED NEW RECORD IN FLIGHT.

In Aviation Flight at Ingleside Cuts Record in Half While Officials Watch

In a sensational speed flight at Ingleside, Herbert Wolf, an 18-year-old Oakland youth of 112 Walker avenue, broke the world's record by cutting the figure 8 in his airplane in one minute flat. Two minutes is the average time taken by aviation students in cutting the figure 8, and by achieving the maneuver in one minute flat Wolf is nearly three-quarters of a minute ahead of the time previously established as a record.

The flight was observed by Guy T. Slaughter, representing the Aero Club of America. Wolf recently joined the Christofferson aviation school at Ingleside and displayed his aptitude for flying by taking license certificate within three weeks. He is having a special loop aeroplanes built by the Christofferson Aircraft Company and intends to give spectacular flights before the public.

COMMITTEE WILL PROBE SCHOOL NEED

Nine Representatives to Ascertain City's Necessities

Will Co-operate With Board on Bond Issue

An advisory committee of nine persons, representing every district in the city, will assist the Board of Education in ascertaining the city's needs in the way of new school buildings, and will carry on an educational campaign to convince the people of the city that the needed sums should be voted in a bond issue, according to a plan which was approved by the Board of Education at a meeting last evening.

The plan was suggested in a letter from E. C. Kayser, president of the Alameda County Civic Association. On motion of Director Annie Florence Brown, the board voted to approve it, and it was decided that the plan of procedure of the new organization will be decided upon at a meeting of the committee of the whole.

ONE FROM EACH DISTRICT.

In accordance with the letter from Kayser, the advisory board will probably be made up of nine delegates, one from each of the following civic organizations: Alameda County Civic Association, Chamber of Commerce, Alameda County Tax Association, Alameda County Labor Council, Oakland Center of the California Civic League, West Oakland Business Men's Association, Santa Fe Improvement Club, Downtown Property Owners' Association and the United Improvement Clubs east of Lake Merritt.

"New schools are needed, and badly needed," Director Louis Aber told the board. "This committee would be an excellent thing, as we need the co-operation of the general public in the bond issue. And we need these improvements very much."

CLUB FILES REQUEST.

Members of the Glenview Improvement Club filed a request that the Board of Education take up an investigation of the construction camp conducted by the contractors, Eates, Berland & Ayer, at the end of Thirty-fourth avenue, saying that it provided a menace to the health of the children attending the McChesney school, a block away.

"This should be investigated," Director W. H. Edwards declared. "That camp has been there for thirty years and it is a menace to the health of the community. It is time that it should be removed."

RIGID PROBE ORDERED.

On Edwards' motion, Dr. N. K. Foster, health director for the school department, was instructed to make a rigid investigation. The city's health department has already made an investigation following the filing of complaints of nearby residents with the City Council, but recommended against the closing down of the yards. The neighborhood residents have continued their protests, however, with the result that the school department will add its investigation to that of the municipal health inspectors.

Deputy City Attorney W. H. O'Brien filed a ruling with the school directors to the effect that, under the law, a portion of the yards of the Lockwood school may be devoted to the city playground department for the purpose of establishing and maintaining a playground there.

ASKS GRAND JURY REVIEW LAVIN CASE

Foss Demands Matter Be Brought Before Body

Says He Will Fight Out Infirmary Matter to Finish

Discouraged in his attempts to secure a thorough investigation of the charges which he has preferred against the county infirmary management, Supervisor Fred W. Foss will confer with the district attorney today and demand that he take the matter before the grand jury, which is now meeting.

He will insist that the most thorough investigation in the history of the institution be gone into by the county investigators.

Foss' determination to fight followed the result of yesterday's investigation of the manner in which John Lavin conducts his saloon near the county infirmary. The Berkeley supervisor introduced testimony and affidavits proving that Lavin had knowingly sold liquor to county infirmary inmates, despite official warning that to do so meant the revocation of his license. Yet, when Foss made a motion that Lavin's license be revoked there was not even a seconding voice among the four other members of the board.

Friends of Heyer state that Lavin's testimony yesterday not only brought out the fact that he sold Heyer's beer but other brands of the liquor as well.

SAYS CASE IS PROVEN.

"I have proven my case in spite of the efforts of the other members of the board in behalf of the defendant saloonkeeper," Foss announced. "I'm not through with the case yet," Foss said today. "They can continue programming against me, but I can also continue showing them up in their true light as petty, cheap politicians. I intend to do so. I am right in this fight and they know I am right. So I will continue the fight."

"If Heyer refuses to take this case before the grand jury I will take other means of having this body of men investigate the conditions at the county hospital."

TO INTRODUCE RESOLUTION.

At the meeting of the supervisors Monday Foss will introduce a resolution calling for the discontinuance of the existing system at the infirmary and hospital wherein inmates of the institution are paid small monthly allowances for working as petty bootleggers for fellow inmates. He will ask that outside men and women be employed for this work and paid salaries by the county. Also, he will ask that a woman be placed in charge of the dining-room in place of James Spencer, an inmate, who, as the investigation of the case has proven, have been brutal to old and mentally deficient men.

"They announced three weeks ago that he would introduce such a resolution," says Foss, "but he has not done so. Murphy said he would support such a resolution. I wonder if they have changed their minds by this time. Well, we will find out next Monday, when they get an opportunity to vote on my motion."

Methodist Session to Vote Against Tobacco

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., May 5.—The women of the Methodist Episcopal church have raised $4,322.50 during the last four years for home mission purposes, according to figures submitted to the general conference of the church today.

This is an increase of nearly $100,000 over that raised during the preceding four years.

A resolution urging members of the church to abstain from the use of tobacco was presented by Rev. Eugene H. Stockwell of Alameda. This memorial, which declared that counsel to young men against the cigarette habit were largely nullified by the example of church members who smoke, was greeted with applause. Action on it was deferred.

Lawrence Can't Remember Trial Murderer Says Mind Was a Blank

From San Quentin prison, where Charles Clark Lawrence is serving a life sentence for the murder of his wife, Orpha, on December 16 last, in their home at 1010 Fiftieth avenue, has come the plaint of the prisoner that he remembers nothing of the period covering his trial, his mind being a blank so far as the proceedings against him are concerned.

Superior Judge F. B. Ogden, who sentenced Lawrence, has received a pleading letter from him, setting the circumstances of his physical condition and asking that the judge intercede for his in obtaining a commutation of his long sentence.

"I do not remember anything that my attorneys said to me," writes Lawrence. "The whole trial is a blank upon my mind."

The trial brought out the fact that the defendant has been a sufferer from epilepsy, his daughter, Aubrey, 15 years of age, testifying that she had frequently seen her father in spells brought on by the disease.

"I felt very sorry for Lawrence when I had to sentence him to life imprisonment," said Judge Ogden. "I understood his physical condition and the circumstances of his case. It was pitiful. I shall recommend that after seven or eight years he be given parole."

Veterans Plan Trip in Special Train

In striking contrast to the long, weary marches which were endured in the days of '61 to '65 by the boys in blue in "reaching camp," will be the method of conveyance enjoyed by the veterans when they assemble at Bakersfield for their annual encampment, which opens on May 8.

The special train which is to convey them to Bakersfield and which will leave the Sixteenth street station at 9:40 a. m. next Monday, will consist of a buffet smoking car, where the veterans may recount the stories of death and daring which transpired years ago, a dining car where everything good to eat, including even "beans and" may be obtained, steel chair cars and last but not least a library observation car, where the ladies may while away the pleasant hours as the special winds its way swiftly along the shores of the bay and down through the sunny valley of the San Joaquin, which at this time of year has on its best "Sunday clothes."

In addition to the veterans and their families, large delegations of Spanish War veterans, Sons of Veterans and Women's Relief Corps and ladies of G. A. R. members will be on board the train.

Captain W. R. Thomas, who has charge of arrangements for the party, estimates that one of the largest Grand Army crowds ever taken out of the bay cities will be on board and urges all who wish to be one of the party to communicate with him at once, room 406, Datzell building, Oakland, telephone Oakland 3483.

Veteran Sporting Editor

By MR. MILDON.

"The Lucky Dutchman!" That's what they used to call Chris von der Ahe, once owner of the St. Louis Browns, who at one time had a million or two in the bank and later died a poor man.

There never was but one Chris. The world will never see another like him.

Chris was a typical Dutchman, with a nose like that of Cyrano de Bergerac and the stomach and body of Falstaff.

Besides owning the St. Louis Browns, Chris had a big saloon at St. Louis and Grand avenue, in St. Louis, and in the halcyon days of his career he had a call one day from a monument builder.

This builder brought with him a replica of the monument he proposed building for Chris in Bellefontaine cemetery.

It was a fine reproduction of the "Lucky Dutchman," heroic in size, with the principal bare headed and dressed in a Prince Albert suit.

It did a great credit to the subject, and it pleased Chris so much that he handed the builder a check for $15,000 as first payment on the work.

In the days of trial and misfortune which followed Chris lost all he had in the world that was worth talking about, but the monument stands today a memory of the strangest and most wonderful character the game has ever known.

When Von der Ahe owned the St. Louis Browns the team won the American Association championship four times, being runner-up and three times it took a world's pennant.

In the close of each of these championship seasons it was the custom of Chris to give a banquet to the baseball men of the country.

At such times he would rent the main floor of the biggest and best hotel in St. Louis and the banquet chamber would be made to look like the interior of a king's palace, decorated in honor of some festive occasion.

At these banquets the place of residence was a speech from Chris that always set the table in a roar.

Due to his perverseness, his lack of understanding in so far as the amenities of the occasion went, his quick temper and with it his wonderful good nature there were many strange and humorous happenings during the course of his wonderful career.

One of these occurred on the field at Old Sportsman's park in St. Louis one summer afternoon.

It was while the once famous Cliff Carroll was playing at leftfield for the Browns.

Chris was sent out to Cliff at a crucial moment and when the enemy had all the bases covered.

Chris hit Cliff on the chest and actually sank into his shirt pocket.

Carroll tried to get the ball out, but could not budge it.

Three runners saw that something was wrong and began moving around the bases.

Chris ran in tugging at the ball. He couldn't even move the leather. The three men scooted along and scored.

Von der Ahe was frantic. After Chris Carroll hit he ordered new uniforms without a vestige of a pocket.

"But, Mr. Von der Ahe," suggested Secretary Munson, "the men need pockets in which to keep their handkerchiefs. How can they wipe the perspiration from their faces?"

"If any man dot versipus 'tude," thundered Chris.

"But, where will they carry their tobacco?"

"Let 'em chew hay. Der can carry a clip with hay in der belt," roared Von der Ahe, "no more pockets in mein uniforms."

LOUIS GUSTO IS HAILED AS A BATTING FREAK

Portland's Slugger Either Hits for Extra Bags or Not at All.

Louis Gusto, the ox-shouldered first baseman of the Beavers, seems to be strictly a batting freak. As a rule he hits for extra bases or doesn't hit at all. Of his twenty-four hits to date, only nine of them have been singles. In the numbers very few home runs, with triple and six doubles. His all-around hitting has been mediocre — only slightly above the average. Many a ball player has lost his job because he couldn't show a better average than that.

His home runs have been timely as a rule to date, but it remains to be seen whether his batting will be sufficiently consistent to make him of great value to his club. Gusto has hit for extra bases more than one-third of his blows into home runs, slumps him as the roughest young batter that ever batted into the Coast league, and likewise one of the biggest attractions.

Schaller led the league with twenty-eight hits last season. In a month's play Gusto has gathered almost half that many. Bodie holds the league record with thirty-four homers made in 1910, and went to the American league on the strength of this. Gusto, if he could maintain his present gait, would show twenty-five home runs at the close of the season.

Don Barry avers that the kid hit one in Oakland which would have cleared the leftfield fence at Los Angeles. Still, the belief is general that he will find head-on in the home run department when he strikes the more spacious ball yards.

WELSH SAYS THAT HE WILL QUIT IN 1917

Freddie Welsh announces that he will retire as champion on July 7, 1917. Welsh may do it — and he may not. It all depends upon whether or not he trips conclusions over the decision route with one of the topnotch lightweights in the game today.

The day that Welsh willingly risks his title in a long bout will be the day that he will retire as champion. He has gone back so far during the past two years that any one of the three leading lightweights — Benny Leonard, Johnny Dundee and Charlie White — can beat him decisively in twenty rounds.

The chances of Welsh being knocked out in a no-decision bout are, as we noted, more than a year ago, almost nil. The Welshman has a perfect defense for his chin and a body that can stand up pretty well under a full-on attack. If Leonard, White or Dundee hit Welsh flush upon the chin, the fight will be over, but that is not easy of accomplishment. Welsh always fights with his chin on his breast and with his guard covering the other vulnerable spots on his creeper torso.

CREEK FISHING AT

The following report on fishing conditions along the Feather river is made to the TRIBUNE by agents of the Western Pacific Railway:

HANS OHRT BECOMES
OUTLAW MEMBER

The ranks of the Federation of American Cyclists, the so-called outlaw bicycle riders' association which is fighting the National Association of Amateur Cyclists, was further strengthened yesterday when it was learned that Hans Ohrt, national champion and local favorite, had cast his lot with the "outlaw" organization.

Ohrt was banished by the N. A. C. authorities on account of taking part in a meet in the east in which "outlaw" riders were competing. The latter outfit is now one being formed by about two years ago. Packey McFarland, former lightweight boxer and Chicago backer, Billy Gibson, New York matchmaker and manager of Benny Leonard, and Harry Pollock, manager of Freddie Welsh, world's lightweight champion, are backing them. Ohrt leaves for the east, Friday to take part in the title races being run there.

CHAMPION SCULLER DIES.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 6.—Louis H. Scholl, for many years champion sculler of the South, and a prominent follower of water sports, died here yesterday. He was 28 years old.

The annual girls' interscholastic school tennis championships will be staged this afternoon and all day tomorrow at the Claremont Country Club with several institutions represented and a large number of girls participating.

Intercol, will center on the playing of Miss Sally Long, state singles champion, and who, with her sister, Miss Amy Long, captured the girls' state doubles championship last year. Miss Amy Long will not take part in this year's tourney, due to the fact that she is attending school at Washington at present. Miss Sally Long will represent Miss Rauson's school of Oakland in the singles, while Miss Janet Knox and Miss Irene Cheek will represent the same institution in the doubles. Miss Head's school of Berkeley, Palo Alto High School, Miss Barker's school of Palo Alto, Hayward High School and three other institutions will take part in the tourney.

Saturday's play will commence at 10 o'clock and will extend through the afternoon until the finals are played off.

The other day in the Oakland ball park preas box the baseball scribes were amusing themselves by taking the many odd and weird names of some of the players, coaches and forming them into amusing jingles. HENDERSON AFTER BATTING ORTEGA

Abe Henderson, commonly known as "Handsome Abe" to local boxing fans, has issued a challenge to Battling Ortega, the Mexican middleweight, who has been beating all comers of late. Henderson has lately returned from Portland and witnessed Ortega in action the other night. He feels sure that he can give the "Mex" a merry time, at least a harder time than did Cliff Lester last Wednesday night.

George Kahler, former Portland twifler, has signed with the Toledo club of the American Association.

CHRIS EVANS TO FACE OPERATION

Bullets in Brain for Years, Are Menace to Life of Ex-Bandit.

SACRAMENTO, May 5.—Carrying in his brain two bullets that were fired at him by a posse in 1913 when he and George Sontag, both desperate train robbers, terrorized the people of Fresno and Tulare counties, Chris Evans, who has been on parole from Folsom prison since May, 1914, is in the county hospital today in order that the doctors may remove the lead and relieve him of pain.

Evans, who is now 35 years of age, will be operated on by Dr. J. D. Harris, superintendent of the hospital, in an effort to save his life, for the bullets are causing his right side to become paralyzed. One bullet is in the brain above the right eye and the other is behind the right ear.

Evans, upon his freedom from prison, worked for a time as a city watchman at Portland.

ROMANCE BRIEF FOR SOCIETY GIRL

Bride of Three Months Learns of Deception; Is Given Divorce.

The story of a romance that was smashed, after three months, and of a bride, who discovered that her husband was a bigamist, told in the Superior Court in San Francisco, won a divorce for Mrs. Marion S. Phillips, formerly Marion Wilcox, Oakland society girl. Today she has her maiden name back. Her husband, that was, is a fugitive from justice, and the case is one of the queerest in the annals of the bay city courts.

The divorce was awarded on the grounds of cruelty. According to the bride's story, she sought an annulment as soon as she discovered that her husband had another wife. The other wife, however, refused to testify, as would be necessary to establish ground for annulment. Mrs. Phillips therefore waited the full statutory year, then alleged desertion.

The wedding was one of the big social events of Oakland and took place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilcox, 812 Lake Shore avenue. Three months afterward, she declared, her husband told her of his other wife in Seattle, and then fled for Utah, where he now is said to be. Judge Van Nostrand granted the divorce.

She said after being rescued that she had been overcome with faintness while drawing water and had fallen into the well.

Neither Mrs. Eberts nor the defendant, who, she explained, is her brother-in-law, would explain the reasons underlying her suit, which was for the recovery of moneys alleged to have been advanced. The Taylor home is at 90 Sea View avenue, Piedmont.

SIX FREE SESSIONS IN COOKING
MRS. VAUGHN IS TO SHOW CULINARY PROBLEMS SOLVED

MRS. KATE B. VAUGHN, WHO WILL CONDUCT TRIBUNE'S HOME ECONOMICS SCHOOL.

Women who are reputedly good cooks are always eager to attend anything which will add to their knowledge of the important art in which they excel. An opportunity to do this will be afforded by the Second Annual Better Foods, Better Homes School to be put on by The Tribune in Auditorium Opera House next week. There will be six free cooking lessons in this course and Mrs. Kate B. Vaughn, the famous southern cook who will have charge, has planned to demonstrate some thirty-five or forty recipes, many of which will be new to the most accomplished cooks in the city. The recipes for all of these dishes will be given away to the women who attend her classes, and other recipes will be published from day to day in The TRIBUNE, thus making up an unusually fine collection for the good cooks of Oakland.

COOKERY PROGRAM VARIED.

Mrs. Vaughn will teach how to make good cakes, give every detail in the making and baking of delicious pies and tarts, give definite instruction in regard to salads, which drawing and various kinds of toothsome sauces, tell how to choose satisfactory cuts of meat and how to prepare them. She will give several helpful lessons in the satisfactory use of the fireless cooker, and tell how to make a perfect loaf of bread. This last item she considers one of the most important lessons on her program.
The proper care and feeding of children is a special hobby with this lecturer, who is the mother of a large family, and many dishes especially liked by children and good and wholesome for them to eat will be included in her program.

It will thus be seen that every class of housekeeper and cook will be able to get much valuable information from Mrs. Vaughn's lecture and cookery course. Young women who aspire to be good housekeepers and successful cooks always receive special attention at Mrs. Vaughn's hands. She has a deep sympathy for all of their troubles and a clear understanding of their peculiar needs and knows how to help them over difficult places.

ASK QUESTIONS.

Questions on any subject relating to housekeeping and cooking, to the care of the family and the administration of household finances are welcomed by Mrs. Vaughn at all times, and she uses every endeavor to solve such problems helpfully and satisfactorily. In short, the aim of this Better Foods Better Homes course is to help, and nothing is too hard or too much trouble to undertake if it will be the means of making some woman a more efficient wife and mother and a happier homemaker.

Signboard Falls;
Injures Two Men

When a thirty-foot signboard on which they were working at the Oakland pier blew over upon them this morning, Harry Dambacher, 22 years of age, of 381 Jackson street, and William Reagan of San Francisco, sign painters, received serious injuries.
Dambacher, who received a fractured skull, broken ribs, a broken right ankle and fractured left foot, is at the Emergency hospital and may not recover.

Reagan, who is 41 years of age, had both of his legs seriously bruised, together with broken bones. He lives in the Burnett apartments at O'Farrell and Market streets, San Francisco.

Junk Buyer Accused
by Police of Crime

Frank B. Gold was arrested today at 316 East Twenty-first street on a bench warrant issued by Judge Hancock of San Andreas, charging that he violated his probation when he received a charge of failure to provide. Gold will be taken to San Andreas today.

Charles Benson, 211 Brush street, was arrested today on a charge of knowingly receiving stolen property.
Benson is alleged to have made a practice of purchasing junk, old iron and brass, from boys who had stolen it.

TWO SOLDIERS KILL SEAVES.

EL PASO, May 5.—Corporal Troise of the Sixth Infantry ended his life at San Antonio, Mexico, the American base, on April 25, according to official word today. There were no details. Another soldier committed suicide the same day at San Antonio.

PAINTING PEACHES
NOW ON PARASOLS

Fluffy Gowns and Wonderful
Hats Reflect Art in Color Designs.

By MARGARET MASON.

The arrow's feather Cupid dipped Within a bleeding heart, cabbage
Then on his Psyche's new spring hat
He painted with rare art.
And when the Summer girl espied
This love of a chaplain,
She cried, "I'd give my heart for that
But I've no heart, you know."

NEW YORK, May 4.—Next to your face your hat should be the most painted affair of the season.

No, of course not, Gertrude, I'm not insulting anything.

Arrest your hats always next to your face?

All those artists who have been painting the town, or coloring their stories, suddenly appear in any more with the versatile brush wielders who can dash off a hatbox or two while you wait.

Hide, fruit and flowers are the choice subjects for these hand-painted hats.
The artists go in for still life possibly because they believe while there is still life there is hope.

Most of the birds are anything but still, however, as they are shown in the most striking of colors and lean toward the parakeet and cockatoo varieties.

FRUITFUL HATS.
The fruit painted hats bear every known fruit, reasonable and unreasonable, in reckless abandon.

Peaches, apples, oranges, strawberries, grapes, pears, plums and citrus fruits clump together.

What a fortune our orchard crop would mean if only our fruit trees were hat trees.

The hats painted in floral effects run to large blossoms, like hydrangeas, cabbages and polyanthus, even some of the lilies are gilded.

You know how it is yourself when the house decorators leave a little enamel or radiant lacquer behind, how you go around touching up everything in sight.

The same thing evidently has happened to the fashion artists. With the paint left over from the hats they have avail-ably gone about decorating evening frocks and afternoon gowns in hand-painted festoons, garlands and nosegays.

The plain little light bodices and buffant skirts and paniers of taffeta on the evening models lend themselves beautifully to hand-painted ornamentation.

A hand-painted muslin chiffon or silk frook for a bright summer's day is perfect apparel when topped with a hand-painted hat of a like design and finished with hand-painted hose and slippers to boot.

Fine, indeed, for the maid who has sense enough to come in out of the rain.

Painted parasols are exceptionally charming. They carry out the design of the rest of your painted costume, or they may be an original theme.

A lavender one doted in clusters of purple and yellow panicles is indeed food for thought. We have long had lamp shades and candle shades hand-painted, so why make light of hand-painted sunshades?

Anyway you look a hand-painted summers imminent.

All summer girls will be "mind-the-paint-girls" and of a necessity "watch your step" as a watchword will fade into oblivion before the admonition "mind the paint."

Let us hope we don't all have the painter's colic before the season's over.

Court Utters Dictum on "Wonderful Stomach"

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—"Many a man would envy that man's stomach," Decree is granted.

That is what Judge J. P. Wood said today when he granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Mrs. Anna Dietrichs from Willy Dietrichs on the grounds of desertion and non-support.

"Dietrichs drank every day," a witness testified. "He often treated his friends and spent much time in the saloons of San Bernardino where he was living at the time. He spent as much as $4 a day."

MY TIRED FEET
ACHED FOR 'TIZ'

Let Your Sore, Swollen, Aching Feet Spread Out in a Bath of 'Tiz.'

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath.
Your toes will wriggle with joy;
they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz."
It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait.
Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Advertisement.

Alkali Makes Soap
Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mildly lathered soap for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces.
You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. About a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

Indigestion May Be Due to Constipation

Neglect of Important Function May Seriously Impair the Health.

There are many people who believe they suffer from indigestion when their discomfort really is due to a constipated condition.

Bloat, with its attendant mental depression, sick headache, the belching of sour stomach gases, etc., are frequently due to inaction of the bowels.
Relieve the congestion and the trouble usually disappears. The use of cathar-tics and purgatives should be avoided, however; these shock the system unnecessarily and, at best, their effect is but temporary. A mild laxative is far preferable.

The compound of simple laxative herbs known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle, is highly recommended.
Mr. Benj. Bassin, 380 Madison St., Gary, Ind., thinks Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin a wonderful medicine; for four years he had a severe case of indigestion and constipation before trying Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which he is glad to recommend to all who suffer with stomach and bowel trouble.

BENJ. BASSIN.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin should be in every home for use when occasion arises. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454
Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Black Watch Trooper at Garden Party

BRIDGELEY, May 5.—An interesting figure at the garden party for the Alliance of Highland men here is now in the city. Tomorrow afternoon will be A. L. Shomerby of Highland, whose home is now in the city, and who belongs to the famous Black Watch Regiment that has distinguished itself at the front in the world wars, and the royal tarten, the uniform of the regiment, which is the most famous in King of Scots.

Shomerby will be accompanied by a small girl in Highland costume, who will be the first to appear in the evening. The fortune-telling booth to which Mrs. Larke will lead palms in her clever manner, will be another interesting feature. The affair will be a most successful one.

M'ADOO PLANS REVENUE WORK

Democratic Leaders to Confer on Problems Before Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—With the return from South America of Secretary McAdoo, Democrats of the House ways and means committee and Senate finance committee determined to get down to hard work on the revenue problems confronting Congress. To this end Representative Kitchin and Senator Simmons, chairman of the revenue committee, arranged to confer with the secretary within a day or two to make a survey of the financial conditions of the treasury, and a general estimate of the requirements for the coming fiscal year.

Senator Simmons said today that the country was going to make an unexpectedly fine showing at the end of this fiscal year.

Collections from internal revenue, income tax, emergency war tax, etc., said, would show an increase over last year of approximately $50,000,000 and to June 1 next, including revenues from the extended emergency war tax, and sugar, the treasury would show a surplus.

It has been agreed that the income tax must be revised and in revising it the committee will work on the basis that it, together with the corporation tax, will yield approximately $100,000,000. They are agreed also that the emergency war tax shall be amended by the elimination of all stamp taxes and revision of some of the commodity rates, and that there shall be levied an excise tax on munitions of war.

CONTRACTOR INJURED.
RICHMOND, May 5.—Dick Williams, former Richmond brick contractor, was seriously injured in an auto accident yesterday when a wagon in which he was riding was struck by an automobile.

Would Use Exposition Fund for Presidio

WASHINGTON, May 5.—At a hearing yesterday before the House appropriations committee, Representatives Kahn and Nolan asked the committee to appropriate $450,000 for the use of the $450,000 unexpended Government appropriation left over from the exposition, to be used in constructing barracks and other buildings at the presidio.

Kahn made an eloquent argument for new buildings at the presidio, and showed the committee photographs taken by the San Francisco Chronicle of the shacks now on the reservation. The committee was practically unanimous that better buildings should be provided after they had seen the photographs and listened to Kahn and Nolan's description of the hovels in which the troops have to live.

The committee will ask the War Department for estimates and plans for constructing new buildings out of the $450,000 fund, and it is practically assured that the appropriation will be included in the bill.

Senate Passes Farm Loan Bill

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Senate last night passed the Hollaender farm loan bill, embodying the administration plan to establish a system of rural credits.

Senators Brandegee, Lodge, Oliver, Page, and Wadsworth, all Republicans, voted against the measure. The bill, after almost two weeks of debate, passed the Senate practically as reported by the banking committee. A somewhat similar bill has been reported by the House banking committee, and it is said, will be brought up for consideration soon.

Progressives Seek Roosevelt's Election

BALTIMORE, May 5.—"We declare that the Progressives of Maryland have but one candidate for the presidency, and are unreservedly for that candidate first, last and all the time, without any second choice," was one of the concluding sentences of resolutions adopted last night at a mass meeting convention.

The delegates were requested to "urge by all honorable and appropriate means and with the utmost persistency the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt."

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Senate and House committees on agriculture arranged a joint session today to allow representatives of the National Association of Commissioners of Agriculture to organized here yesterday, to speak in support of the Shephard bill, which would create administrative machinery for a nation-wide farmers' co-operative union for buying and selling. A similar bill is pending in the House.

JURORS' NAMES DRAWN.
MARTINEZ, May 5.—Judge A. B. McKenney yesterday ordered a grand jury venire of thirty drawn from the box. From the names nineteen will be selected and ordered to report to the court May 17. There has been no grand jury in session in this county since December of last year.

Prominent Men Will Join Training Camp

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 5.—Mayor Joseph R. Ball of this city and Dr. Thomas C. Howe, president of Butler College, have signed applications for admission to one of the three military training camps, to be held at Fort Benjamin Harrison during the summer.

Local committees in charge of the camps are well pleased with the number of applications being received. Although the opening of the first camp is two months off, almost every state of the territory from which recruits may be drawn is represented. Men from Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, the two Dakotas, Minnesota, Wyoming, Missouri, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Wisconsin and part of Montana are eligible, provided they meet the other requirements.

Each camp will continue for a month. The first will open July 5 and close August 4; the second will run from August 4 to September 8 and the third from September 8 to October 6.

The camp will be in charge of United States army officers.

Holds Same Views as Kaiser, But Not Judge

Mike Cuttano, an Austrian, holds the same views as the Kaiser as to armed merchantmen and their treatment when they enter the war zone. That is the reason that, without warning, he yesterday sent a torpedo into the mid-section and a projectile into the upper structure of Jostep Petrovich, Serbian merchantman of 715 Chester street.

Police Judge George Samuels, holding up the Serbian ship, claiming that merchantmen should be warned before being attacked, today decreed the Austrian vessel to have violated international and other laws. Judgment will be passed next Monday. In the meantime the Austrian is held in port on the north side of the city hall, while the Serbian limping badly, has made for a drydock for repairs.

Norway Authorities Destroy Zeppelin

COPENHAGEN, May 5.—The military authorities at Stavanger, Norway, used up the Zeppelin L-20 yesterday when it began to roll dangerously in a strong wind. Soldiers fired upon the airship from a distance of sixty yards. The Zeppelin exploded with a great detonation and was burned. The L-20 was one of the squadron of Zeppelins which raided the east coast of England and Scotland Tuesday night. On her return journey she was blown ashore on the Norwegian coast, hurled against a mountainside and wrecked.

The date of the election has been set for Wednesday, May 24.

Macdonald, in company with his brother, R. J. Macdonald, and R. Webster has left for Ohio. A pair of gold cut buttons presented Macdonald by C. J. Shepherd, teacher of the class.

YORK AND KARR SIGNED RECALL

Convicted Men's Names Are Found on Jackson Petition.

The discovery was made today that Rolfe A. York and Edward Karr, former Oakland policemen, who were recently convicted of passing counterfeit money, and who have been allowed their freedom on bail pending an appeal, have signed the recall petition against Commissioner F. P. Jackson. The names of the two men are among those that were passed by City Clerk L. W. Cummings, but it is possible that an effort will be made to eliminate them on the ground that York and Karr have lost their civil rights through being convicted of a felony before the United States court.

The recall election will cost the city $15,000 if the Taxpayers' League succeeds in obtaining the necessary signatures to make an election mandatory. This is over a cent on the tax levy which the property owners will be forced to pay for the privilege of voting as to whether Commissioner Jackson shall retain the position to which he was elected.

City Clerk L. W. Cummings today made the estimate of expenses. If the first election should not be decisive and a second election follow, the cost will double, making more than two cents addition to the tax levy, according to the City Clerk. Figuring on a single election, the actual expense will be $15,000 for the election, added to the $400 already spent for extra clerk service and verifying the petition, and an additional $300 to be spent for extra clerks to verify the supplementary petition now being circulated, making a total of $15,700.

Withdrawals are being registered with City Clerk Cummings at the rate of 10 or 12 a day to the Jackson recall petition, thus making the task of the recall so much more difficult.

Socialist Throws House in Turmoil

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Representative London, the only Socialist member, threw the House into a turmoil today by remarks on the suffrage clause of the Forto Rican bill.

As reported by the official stenographer and understood by members, London declared working people who are disfranchised by the bill would "have the right to use revolvers, the right to use violence and the right to kill governors."

"I demand that the member's words be taken down," shouted Mr. Austin, Republican from Tennessee, and wish that I could make a motion to expel him from the House." Upon Mr. Austin's objection Mr. London withdrew his remarks.

Might Have Taken Caplan Earlier

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—David Caplan, alleged accomplice in the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times building, arrested after a search of four and a half years, might have been taken into custody in April, 1911, six months after the explosion, according to testimony given today by J. M. Tillman, a deputy sheriff of Toluca, Wash., in Caplan's trial for murder.

Tillman testified he saw Caplan at a Sunday baseball game at the Home Colony near Tacoma. He knew Caplan was wanted in the Times case, but he did not arrest him because there was no boat due to leave until the following day and he feared friends of Caplan would rescue him.

Kaiser's Wife Hears "Hope" of Socialist

AMSTERDAM, May 5.—An incident that is said to have occurred to the German Empress is told here today by a traveler from Berlin.

The Empress was visiting a war hospital. She leaned over a cot occupied by a mutilated German soldier from the western front.

"My good man, I hope things are going better with you today," said the Empress to the sufferer.

"Well, I only hope its going as well with you and your sons as its going with me at this moment," responded the soldier.

The Kaiserin was greatly distressed. The wounded soldier was an irreconcilable Socialist Democrat.

Veteran Newsboy Is Killed at Front

LONDON, May 5.—The folk who have lived their lives in the neighborhood of Ludgate Circus, within a stone's throw of St. Paul's Cathedral, are mourning today.

"Bug," the veteran newsboy who stood on the same corner every day for twenty-five years, is dead. A German shell was responsible, according to a letter just received from the trenches in Northern France. "Bug" joined the army in February, 1915, and left his post with the best wishes of thousands. He was killed by shell fire while tending the wounded.

RECORD TIME.

While towing the yacht Pastina down the estuary for drydocking, the Oakland Tug and Tugboat Company's launch Ed broke down when off the Howard street wharf yesterday afternoon. The launch Legonia towed yacht and dis-launch back to the Franklin-street wharf. Mr. Charlies were set to work on Yankee's engines by Albert Berry, gun for Minister Charles Elbert, and in less than thirty minutes the "major" was again in working order and journey down the estuary was resumed. "There was certainly no time lost that," he commented the Pastina's crew, who were on board the yacht.

ACUTE WEAKNESS ON HEAVY LIQUIDATIONGerman Reply Is Overshadowing Feature of Wall-Street Market

NEW YORK, May 5.—The German note was the overshadowing feature at the opening of today's market, stocks manifesting acute weakness on heavy liquidation.

Initial declines ran from 3 to 6 points in the better known specialties, including war issues and various industrials and equipments, while Bethlehem Steel fell 19 points.

A very considerable part of the selling originated from intercourses, commission houses with connections in the Middle West being among the most active participants in the liquidating movement.

Rails showed more resistance to the declining tendency than any other parts of the list.

Recoveries of substantial proportions were shown by some of the favorite stocks before the end of the first half hour.

Professional comment.

Harris Whitcomb Co.—Political conditions are sufficiently uncertain to suggest a further reaction this time.

Shearson, Hamill, Hewitt & Co.—Tendencies are bearish, but it is yet too early to take them seriously. We cannot believe so.

Bartholomew & Warren Clandler—We continue to believe that the situation as a whole warrants lower prices.

E. F. Hutton & Co.—As we read the news given out so far, it more than justifies an answer of cancellation. When the first effects are over this country will resume its normal position.

NEW YORK STOCK RANGE.

New Ingot Rates Announced by S. P.

The Southern Pacific Company has announced a new rate of 50 cents per hundred pounds for copper, brass or zinc scrap melted into ingots or blocks, the rate to apply from California points to Southern territory. Hereafter the melted scrap has been moved to the Atlantic Coast via water lines, there having been no established rail commodity rates. The publication of the new rate, say rail officials, will enable California parties to enter the business more extensively. The following new rates for routing tile, from California points to eastern destinations, are also announced:

Chicago and points west, 60 cents per hundred pounds.

East of Chicago, 35 cents per hundred pounds.

Hereafter there has been no special commodity rate for the east-bound movement of routing tile and the establishment

Mrs. Henderson Is Bride of Secretary

News of the marriage in Los Angeles on Thursday of Mrs. Mathilda Henderson, of Oakland, to her secretary, Charles P. Moore, came as a surprise to Oakland friends of the couple today. The bride is the widow of the late James Henderson, wealthy mining man of this city, where she has made her home at 2312 East Fourteenth street. She left for the south on Tuesday evening, she was going to Texas to inspect some mining properties, and would be away a month. Moore accompanied her, and they were quietly married in Los Angeles yesterday. The bride's age was given as 33 in the marriage license, and that of the groom as 37.

One of the new ones is with a view to opening eastern markets for the California output.

The committee in charge is J. J. Parks (chairman), R. V. Grier, L. L. Posquin, T. A. Mirko, E. O'Brien, M. M. Kenney, T. E. Mullin, J. Zunino, J. F. Nolan.

STUDENT NURSE WOULD END LIFE

In Spell of Melancholia Ellen McIntyre Takes Deadly Poison.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Seized with a spell of melancholia due to continued fretting, Miss Ellen McIntyre, a pretty pupil nurse of 21, attempted suicide in the dormitory of the San Francisco hospital at 4 o'clock this morning. It was more than three hours later before she was found suffering on her cot and carried into the emergency division. There the stomach pump was applied and an antidote administered.

"My life has been a dark, dismal failure and I want no more of it," was all she would say by way of explanation to Dr. McIntosh, the attending physician.

Miss McIntyre has been in training at the hospital less than a year. She was of a quiet nature and made but few friends among the other nurses. Dr. McIntosh is hopeful of saving her life and her condition will be carefully watched.

"I believe she has a chance of recovery," said the physician, "but melancholia is so treacherous and its after effects so serious that I cannot be sure."

TWO TELL DETAILS OF DIVER CHASES

Victims Set Adrift After Vessels Sent to Bottom by Germans.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Details of the sinking of Italian steamship Josef Agost Pomeroy, formerly an Austrian vessel, by a German submarine on April 23, when 150 miles off Landa End, England, and the rescue of the crew from once boats by the Norwegian steamship Pythia, were related by officers of the Pythia on the latter's arrival here today from London.

The Josef Agost, according to the Pythia's officers, was first sighted about two miles ahead and at about the same time a submarine was seen. A torpedo was fired, but missed the Italian ship, and the crew then took to the boats. The submarine then fired twenty-two shells into the steamer before she went down.

The Pythia rescued the men, thirty-two in all, and putting back, went as near as she could with safety to the English coast, signaled to shore and the crew was landed in fishing boats.

The captain of the Josef Agost, the last man to leave his ship, went insane and was taken ashore under guard to prevent him from committing suicide.

John D. Harrison, 34 years old, of Chicago, who has just arrived in this city from Liverpool, tells a story of having been pulled aboard a German submarine in the bay of Biscay after a ship on which he was steward had been sunk; then cast adrift on a life-raft, to be picked up two hours later by a Scotch patrol boat, and finally landed at Falmouth wearing a rough suit of clothes given to him by the German submarine commander. Through the United States consul at Cardiff, Wales, Harrison said, he filed a claim with the British admiralty for $250 for the loss of his effects.

The ship sunk, according to Harrison, was the Margam Abbey, of English registry, laden with flour and other provisions to supply the British cruisers in the Atlantic.
